

7 O'Clock Edition.
20 PAGES
TODAY.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

THE ONLY ST. LOUIS EVENING NEWSPAPER WITH THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

Vol. 56, No. 305.

ST. LOUIS, TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 21, 1904.

PRICE: In St. Louis One Cent.
Outside St. Louis Two Cents.

7 O'Clock
Edition.

"GET GOOD SEAT AND WATCH" SAYS GOV. LA FOLLETTE

Wisconsin Executive Intimates He Will "Pull Off" Something in His State That Will Disturb Men Who Barred Him From Convention.

A LITTLE MAN, BUT, MY!
WHAT A HARD FIGHTER

Post-Dispatch Staff Correspondent Draws a Graphic Pen Picture of the Pugnacious Badger Leader Who Has the Limelight in Chicago.

BY FRANK R. O'NEIL,
Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Although the fighting spirit is as strong within him as ever, Gov. La Follette will probably fail to make any fuss in the convention.

It is clear that many delegates view with alarm the Wisconsin conditions, and for that reason deplore the action of the national committee in deciding to let 160 Badger Republicans and voices in his convention and according the full voting strength of the state to a 117,000 minority.

But the deed was done by a unanimous vote of the national committee, and there is no probability that the credentials committee of the convention will have sufficient independence to leave even one ear to the fierce little governor's appeal for review of the case.

He has, however, the most troublesome 140 pounds of assets that ever spoiled the peace of a solemn body of statesmen, and he just won't set down and take his medicine. He insists that, as to the medicine, he is prescribing—not taking it.

Now, there is Gov. Cummings of Iowa, who brought here with ostentation the "Towa idea" for tariff reform. The administration guardians met him and his colleagues and, with little difficulty, fixed the "Towa idea" in intent.

Cummings was amazed to find, on a careful recount of his own state delegation, only five who were still willing to vote for even a modified revision clause.

More than that, the rough riding delegates put at the head of the delegation a pronounced "stand pat" man, who looks after the railroad interests in Iowa, leaving the "governor with nothing to do but to pack the

If La Follette

Had Been Cummings.

"Iowa idea" for return shipment. If La Follette had been Cummings, there would have been all sorts of doing while they were shelving him and his idea. But Cummings is not making a moan. He grieves and is silent, while he wonders where all his votes went. There will not be so much as a rifle of his making in the convention.

La Follette, on the other hand, who can't even get in, is making large numbers of the insiders writhingly uncomfortable. He has a Wisconsin idea, and they can't make him "wrap" it up and take it home. The idea is that Spooner, Babcock, Schofield and the others who have been serving the good of Wisconsin. He has convinced even the most conservative of the administration statesmen that, whether he's right or wrong as to the Spooner contingent, he is a really dangerous man and must be eliminated.

Earnest efforts are being made to bring about a compromise. But La Follette and Spooner don't speak, and the peacemakers are ineffectual, for lack of the home flavor. It is confessed by the "Stalwart" Republicans that, while the idea of Spooner is that La Follette persists in his obstinacy the 13 electoral votes of Wisconsin are lost to Roosevelt.

"So far as that is concerned," said one of La Follette's managers, "it would be practically impossible to fight with two Republican electoral tickets in the field. But it's rule or ruin with Senator Spooner and his followers."

The Situation as a La Follette Man Sees It.

"What could be better evidence of that than the utterance of ex-Gov. Schofield? He openly declares that it is more important that La Follette be crushed than that Roosevelt shall carry Wisconsin. There is only one meaning to such an utterance as that.

"It means that the corporate interests which Senator Spooner represents, and for which he did years of effective lobby work at the Madison legislature, regard themselves as the real essence of the Republican party. Any man who seeks to put a bribe on these organizations, as La Follette has done, is, therefore, dangerous, and his destruction is more important than the 13 electoral votes of one state, since his further progress means the disintegration of the Republican party from a thralloid."

So Gov. La Follette is cheerfully preaching his gospel of the supremacy of the law over the creatures of the law and the equality of all taxpayers under the law. As already intimated, he has no chance for a reversal of the national committee's action, or even one vote in the convention; but he wants to be sure that everybody understands that the national committee has only limited jurisdiction in Wisconsin; that the La Follette state ticket is going to win in Wisconsin, and that, if the electoral ticket fails by reason of multiplicity, it will be really a Spooner bolt against Roosevelt, in that the Spooner minority will represent what should help constitute a Roosevelt majority.

The Wisconsin split is a cause celebre.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES SAY THEY'LL STRIKE

Belleville Pupils Declare Almost Unanimously That Unless Fred A. Finke Is Reinstated There Will Be No Commencement Next Friday.

HE WAS SUSPENDED FOR FLIPPING PIECES OF CHALK

Other Alleged Offenses Include Imprisoning of Flies on His Desk by Means of Pins—Girls Join Boys in His Defense.

Unless the Belleville Board of Education reinstates a member of the graduating class of High School who has been suspended, there will not be any High School commencement exercises Friday night.

This is the declaration made by all but seven of the 17 members of the class.

They say that unless Frederick A. Finke is permitted to go on the stage at Liederkrantz Hall and receive his diploma along with the rest they will not go on the stage either.

Finke has been suspended for 30 days, which will extend past the commencement date to prevent him from graduating with the rest.

A meeting of the committee on discipline of the board was held Monday night to give the young man a hearing, but because he was five minutes late he was not heard and the previous action of the committee was confirmed.

Chalk-Throwing Caused it All.

The time-honored paper of adding the art of chalk-throwing to the high school curriculum is the cause of all the trouble. Young Finke, by surpremely perfecting himself in the art, had become very proficient. He was a sort of chalk artist sharpshooter. He had developed the art to such an extent that he could shoot and study at the same time, or appear to, which served the same purpose as far as escaping detection was concerned.

He developed hitherto-unsuspected protective possibilities in chalk. He cultivated his marksmanship with such assiduity that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness were seriously jeopardized in the room where he operated.

He was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

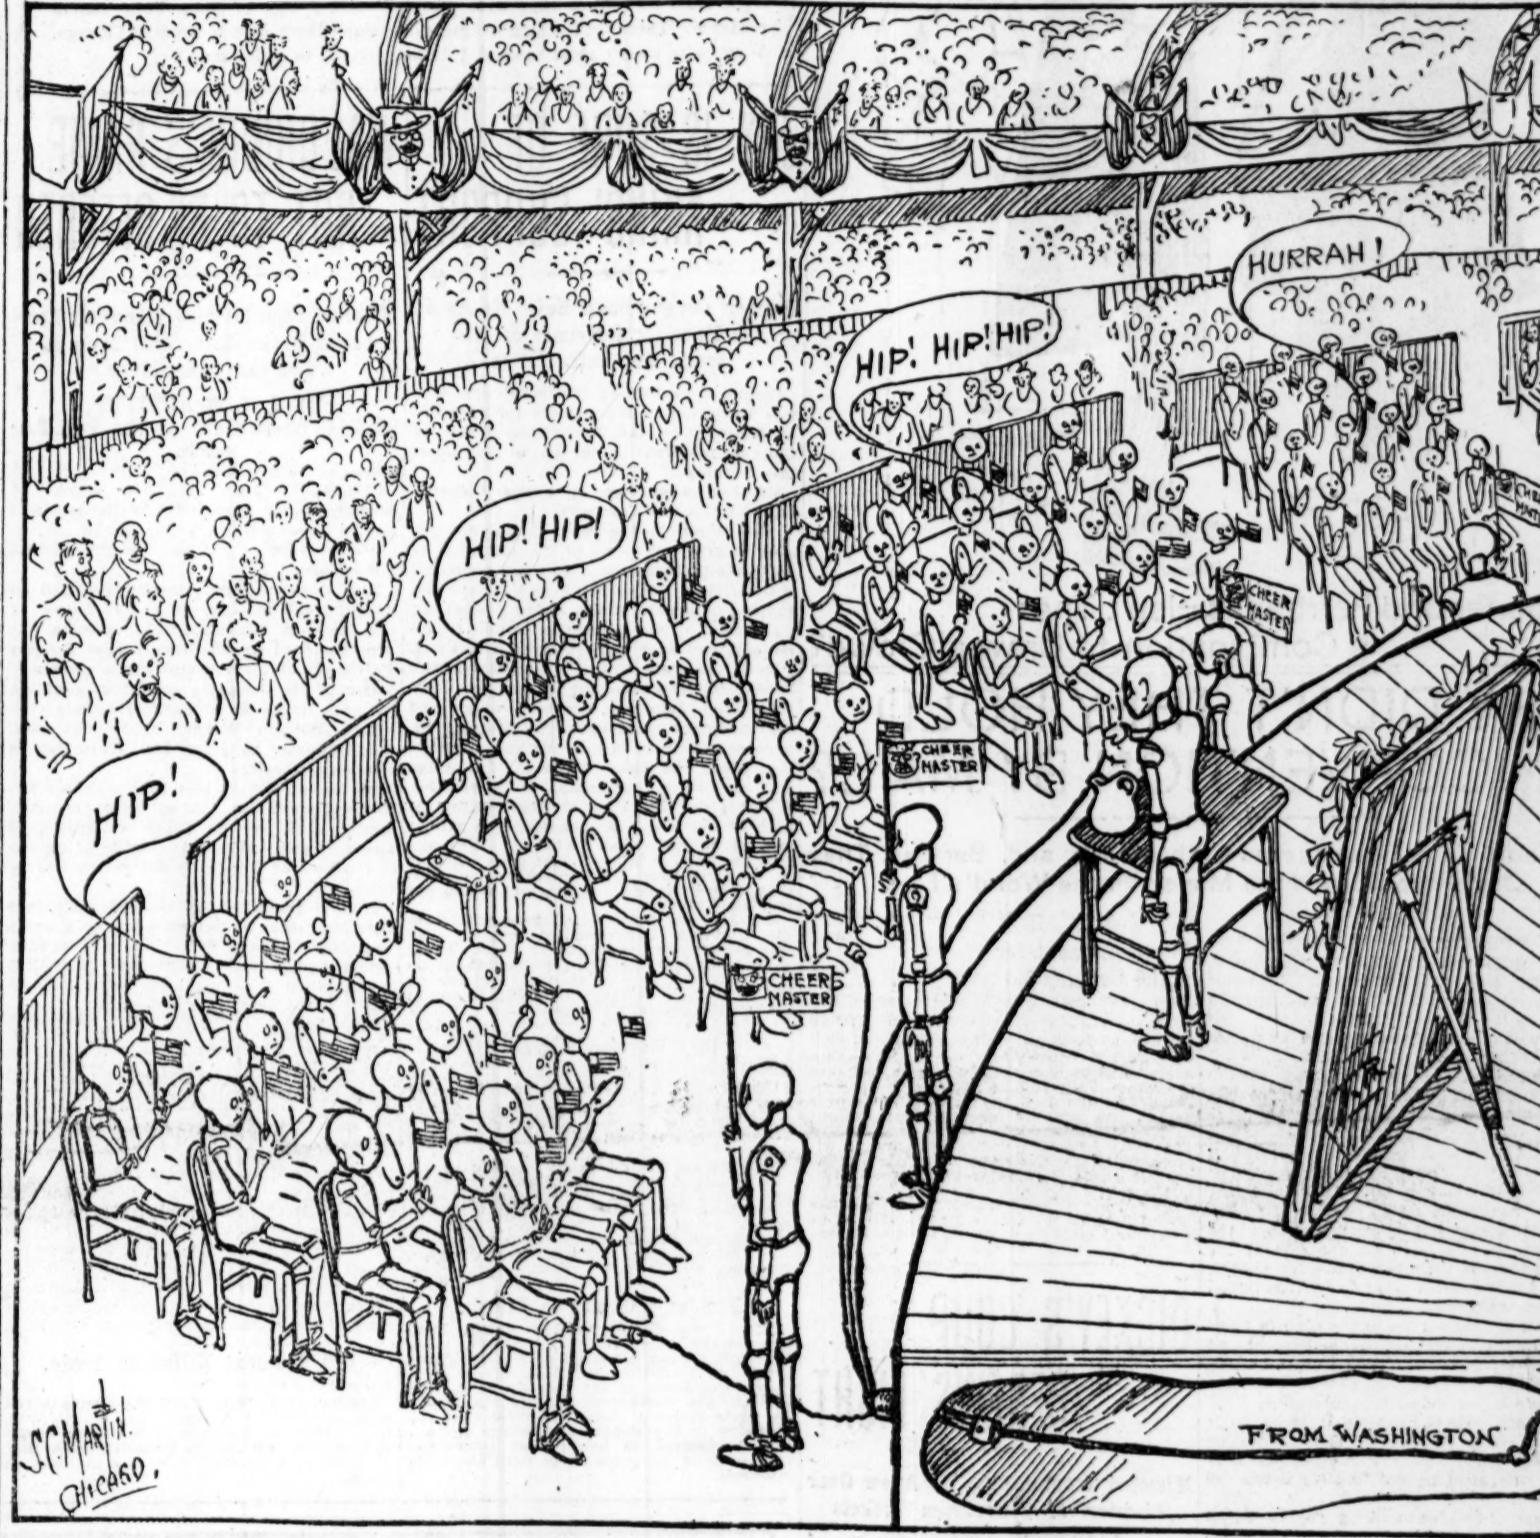

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

She was pretty cute, but his teacher, Miss Augustine Wilderman, was as keen as he was.

She had an eye which was as quick as his hand, and more than once she saw him as he sped a pellet of chalk at another student's head.

CONVENTION ADJOURS FOR THE DAY, AFTER THE VARIOUS DELEGATIONS ANNOUNCE COMMITTEES

THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, AS SEEN IN ALL ITS ENTHUSIASM BY A POST-DISPATCH STAFF ARTIST IN CHICAGO

CHARLES GATES IS HERE FOR HANDICAP

Son of the Millionaire Arrives at Fair Grounds—Gates Has Engaged a Box.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FAIR GROUNDS, June 21.—Charles G. Gates, son of the redoubtable John W. Gates, was at the track today. Gates was at the track for the World's Fair Handicap Saturday.

The elder Gates has advised John A. Drury not to ship his Wicks to St. Louis, where he is staying, and to let him ride in the big stake. Mr. Gates tried to buy the stakes after the colt ran third at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Alex Eshels wired from somewhere in Illinois that he would arrive with the champion at 2:35 p.m. Special quarters have been reserved for the Fair Grounds for the great thoroughbred.

Finke lives out of town on the Lebanon road and he says it was five minutes past noon when he was shot. Spies told the committee he had already attended his case.

He tried to speak and was cut off by a motion to adjourn, made by Gundlach.

He says that after the meeting he found that his arm was broken, and he was unable to stand.

He was then sent to the board for a re-hearing, and this will be done.

The members of the class Tuesday morning when the action was taken Monday night were asked to appear before the board for a re-hearing, and this will be done.

The members of the class are: Misses Hilda, Emily, Ruth, Amy, Barbara, Grace, Spencer, Hilda, Moshie, Ida, Krue, May, Nagel, Edna, Reichen, Emily, Fred, Elmer, Fred, Eddie, Eddie, Fred, Elmer, Nedie (president of the class), Fred, Finke, George, Heinrich, Errol, Kraemer, Edwin, Hyde and Robert B. Ramsey.

Two Reported Missing.

Bert Vollandingham, 22 years old, has been missing since June 14 from the home of his brother, John, 414 Peacock street. His disappearance was reported Tuesday to the police. He is 5 feet 7 inches high, weighs 160 pounds, has sandy hair and a slender figure. His right hand is stiff. He wears a light check suit and black shirt. Barney Barnes, 100 South Second Street, Monday evening, ran away from his home. He was 5 feet 7 inches high, weighed 160 pounds, has sandy hair and blue eyes and wears a yellow brown hair suit and was barefooted. Dewey suit and was barefooted.

MULHALL VICTIM DROPS FROM VIEW

John Murray, One of Wounded Two,
Removed From Hospital and No Record Left.

John Murray, one of the men shot Saturday night on the Pike by Zach Mulhall, and in whose name one of the warrants against Mulhall was issued Monday, was secretly removed Monday night from the Emergency Hospital at the Fair.

The elder Gates has advised John A. Drury not to ship his Wicks to St. Louis, where he is staying, and to let him ride in the big stake. Mr. Gates tried to buy the stakes after the colt ran third at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Murray, who is a rough rider and roper, was taken to the Emergency Hospital directly after the shooting Saturday night.

It was not until it was found that his wound was superficial that he was removed.

Murray, who is a rough rider and roper, was taken to the Emergency Hospital directly after the shooting Saturday night.

It was not until it was found that his wound was superficial that he was removed.

Murray, who is a rough rider and roper, was taken to the Emergency Hospital directly after the shooting Saturday night.

It was not until it was found that his wound was superficial that he was removed.

Murray, who is a rough rider and roper, was taken to the Emergency Hospital directly after the shooting Saturday night.

It was not until it was found that his wound was superficial that he was removed.

Murray, who is a rough rider and roper, was taken to the Emergency Hospital directly after the shooting Saturday night.

It was not until it was found that his wound was superficial that he was removed.

FRANCIS INVITES DELEGATES TO FAIR

Elihu Root Receives Invitation and Senator Depew Moves Its Acceptance at Chicago.

Secretary Walter B. Stevens of the Exposition company arrived in Chicago Tuesday morning with an invitation for the delegates and alternates to the national convention, and the newspaper correspondents attending it, to visit the Fair as the guests of the Exposition.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

Although he is regarded as the main witness against Mulhall, there is no record of him appearing at the Emergency Hospital of where he has been taken. Neither is there any record he has been removed.

CHILD MAY AGAIN LINK HER PARENTS

Presence of Little Lucille Wall in Court May Reunite Mother and Father.

In again deferring decision in the Wall case, Judge Douglas of the Circuit Court virtually gave the husband, Emilie Wall, an extension of time in his fight to win back both wife and child.

The case was heard on Wednesday and Thursday of last week in Division 6. In passing on the case presented by the plaintiff, Mrs. Scott Wall, and the defense made by Emilie Wall, Judge Douglas has announced from the bench that the granting of a divorce to the young couple would be nothing short of a calamity to the community.

The little girl had been in court—she was born with golden hair and blue eyes—presenting to the judge a stronger appeal for a reunion of her parents than either contestant could combat.

FAIRBANKS WILL GET THE VICE-PRESIDENCY

the place look like a railway station, but when they are with us by means of stage the effect was pleasing. The fundamental effort after looking at the immensity of seats, parterre rising on parterre, was to estimate the total. It turned out to be about 8500 numbered places, including the bank of 329 rising behind the platform.

How the News of Convention Is Handled.

Above this terrace of seats hung the colossal portrait of the late Senator Hanna on a canvas 20 by 17 feet. Portraits of the Presidents with flags about them, were placed at regular intervals around the amphitheater. A banner of the Home Market club of Boston swung near the room opposite the chairman.

Underneath the rostrum and stretching the whole length of the basement was one of the most curious sights of the convention—the paraphernalia and the workers who communicated to the millions what the thousands saw.

Inside this space were let hundreds of wires, more than 500, that connect direct with the principal newspapers of the country and with the agencies that transmit news over seas. More than a hundred telephones were working, and upward of 400 telegraph instruments. A thousand reporters, operators and messengers manned this intelligence machine.

For hours before and during the session of the convention the hotels were vacant. The large rooms occupied by state headquarters, decorated with tri-colors and the pictures of distinguished sons, both living and dead, were quite empty since the early morning conference.

ROOSEVELT AN DFAIRBANKS WILL BE THE TICKET PUT FORTH BY THE CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Republican ticket will be Fairbanks and Fairbanks. That was settled last night.

Senator Fairbanks made a long statement of his position, and the Indiana men immediately went out to work for his nomination by acclamation. Gov. Odell's room for Speaker Cannon for second place died early. Cannon made his refusal so emphatic that Odell was obliged to stop work.

The platform will contain a tariff plank of which the general purport is: "It may become necessary at some future time to revise the tariff. If it does, this revision will be made by the Republican party."

This is considered an abstract declaration or revision at the proper time and is intended to hold the revisionists in line. A resolution asking for revision will get only party consideration by the committee on resolutions. The committee is packed against revision or a declaration for it.

George B. Cortelyou will be here today. He will be unanimously elected chairman of the national committee. The opposition to his election was crushed out by the friends of the President, and there was not even a whisper against him today.

Gov. Cummins of Iowa, the best known of the tariff revisionists, was defeated by his delegates, and he brought up his tariff revision resolution.

The anti-trust plank in the platform will speak of what the administration had done in the way of "trust busting," and will promise a continuance of the good work.

Senator Lodge visited the Coliseum yesterday to investigate the report that there were no pictures of President Roosevelt displayed. He grew very angry at the Hanna display and ordered Chairman Raymond of the local committee to put up a large number of pictures of Roosevelt, the leading, at least, one large one. The pictures were put up before the convention met today.

Former Secretary John D. Long and former Gov. Murray Crane of Massachusetts, tried to start a boom for Secretary Taft for vice president. They stopped after they had heard from Elihu Root and Senator Foraker of Ohio.

The lack of interest continues the most remarkable feature of the convention. The crowds are small, the delegates are listless and there is no enthusiasm, not even alcohol.

Meetings held by various state delegations to choose members of the national committee show that scarcely 20 per cent of the old Hanna-McKinley committee will be reappointed. The party machinery will represent the Roosevelt people and the organization, with George B. Cortelyou as its head, and will be dominated absolutely by the President.

It's So Cold in Chicago Just Now.

"This is the most enthusiastic gathering of Republicans I ever saw," said prominent Texas Republican to a prominent Missourian Republican.

"You are the greatest liar I ever met," replied the Missourian, and then they laughed each other in the ribs and laughed loud and long.

Enthusiasm is the slogan of all the Republicans, and they are all trying to outdo each other. It doesn't even require a wink or a smile to give the word its true significance.

Leaders Don't Know Why They're Enthusiastic.

The only thing that troubles them is that not one of the leaders knows what they are enthusiastic about. They ask each other.

One says it is because we have such a great President.

Another says it is because all of our work is cut out for us and we have nothing to do.

Still another suggests that it is because the Republican party is only one "great man." One can imagine the enthusiasm of a gathering of men great men that is, each one thinks he is great—who have met to nominate candidates for the presidency and vice presidency and to make a platform for a great historic party and find the entire job completed by one man.

Just Like a Lot of Marionettes.

Each man in his work allotted to him. One is to make a speech, another to cut for him. Another is to be the temporary chairman; another is to be the permanent chairman; another is to run the campaign of well defined lines.

It is a fact that a lot of Marionettes were on the stage acting and speaking in response to strings pulled by the stage manager. And the Republican leaders have all the energy of a lot of Marionettes and they know it.

There is not one member who does not think in his heart that the Democratic party has the opportunity of its history. All who are on confidential terms with you will frankly tell you so.

Inspect Mississippi Capitol.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 21.—The Capital Building commission left this morning for Jackson, Miss., on an inspection tour, with the view of inspecting the Kentucky Building after the Mississippi Capitol.

Spooner and Fairbanks—Isn't That a Combination to Draw a Crowd?

WHY DIDN'T THEY HOLD CONVENTION BY MAIL?

It Would Have Been Just as Enthusiastic, and, Besides, They Could Have Saved the Money for the World's Fair.

BY O. K. BOYARD,
Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CONVENTION, CHICAGO, June 21.—It's too bad they didn't hold this convention by mail and save the money to spend at the World's Fair.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Three hundred and fifty-nine excursionists lured to town by a good railroad press from the Auditorium up across the street to the Auditorium to see the excitement, safe outside the zone of concession.

There isn't enough enthusiasm to flutter a flag and the extra bartenders have all been fired.

Educators Open Office.

An office has been established by the executive committee of the National Educational Association in Exposition Music week.

PE-RU-NA CURES CATARRH OF KIDNEYS EVERY TIME.

MR. GEORGE KING

Mr. GEORGE KING, deputy sheriff of Rensselaer Co., N. Y., for years was a well-known merchant of Troy, N. Y., he writes:

"Peruna cured me from what the doctors were afraid would turn into Bright's Disease after I had suffered with catarrh of the bladder and kidney troubles."

"Peruna is a blessing to a sick man. Eight bottles made me a well man and were worth more than a thousand dollars to me. I cannot speak too highly of it. It is now four years since I was troubled and have enjoyed perfect health since."

George King.

Mr. Joseph Mackin, 112 Lockwood st., Providence, R. I., writes: "As I saw so much about Peruna in the papers, and I had a doctor say nothing could be any better, I thought I would give Peruna a trial. I bought a bottle of it seven months ago and to my surprise I felt much better. The doctor called it a ailment catarrh trouble and he took seven bottles of your remedy and it cured me."

THE "PIE EATERS" SCORED; DICKEY WAS DEFEATED

St. Louis Politician Is Not Sure That Missouri Republican Linen Is Clean, Even After a Washing at the Meeting in Chicago.

KERENS MADE UNIQUE PLEA FOR HARMONY IN PARTY

Chauncey I. Filley's Name Was Not Presented Because Witthoeft, Had No Speech and "Fire Alarm" Flanagan Was Not a Delegate.

BY J. J. McAULIFFE, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—"It is one thing to wash dirty linen, but quite another thing to get it clean," remarked a prominent St. Louis politician after the Missouri Republican delegation by a vote of 6 to 8 elected State Chairman Thomas J. Akins, Republican national committeeman and selected unanimously Lemuel F. Parker, legislative agent of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, as chairman of the Missouri delegation.

The nominating speeches preceding the vote for national committeeman were marked by an acrimonious dissertation on the political or rather personal merits of Mr. Akins and his opponent, Walter S. Dickey of Kansas City.

While the Republicans concluded their anti-convention meeting with jollying phrases of harmony, under the surface there is still the bitterness of feeling.

The most universal comment heard during the two days of the convention was that history merely repeated itself.

Under the leadership of Col. James C. Flanagan, Col. Kevins was the official spokesman of the delegation.

The following committee selections were made:

Secretary of state delegation—Forrest G. Ferris of Moberly.

Committee on credentials—John F. Russell of Steelville.

Rules and organization—H. A. Smith of W. Pittsburg.

Permanent organization—Senator C. W. Clarke of Kansas City.

House of Delegates—Boyd Dudley of Galatia and Mr. William F. Warner of Kansas City.

To notify president of his nomination—W. Pittsburg.

To notify vice-president nominee—Edward S. Brown of Kahoku.

The following committee selections were made:

Secretary of state delegation—Forrest G. Ferris of Moberly.

Committee on credentials—John F. Russell of Steelville.

Rules and organization—H. A. Smith of W. Pittsburg.

Permanent organization—Senator C. W. Clarke of Kansas City.

House of Delegates—Boyd Dudley of Galatia and Mr. William F. Warner of Kansas City.

To notify president of his nomination—W. Pittsburg.

To notify vice-president nominee—Edward S. Brown of Kahoku.

Missouri Representatives For National Committee. National committeeman—T. J. Akins. Chairman—Frank L. Parker. Credentials—Benjamin F. Russell. Resolutions—Boyd Dudley. To notify President—W. C. Pierce. To notify vice-president—Edward S. Brown. Honorary vice-presidents—Boyd Dudley of Galatia and William F. Warner of Kansas City.

are stirring up political strife, but the friends of the gentleman who has just come here for the purpose of carrying out the work of their representative communities as expressed at primaries and conventions and their will is not to be thwarted.

"Under Mr. Akins the Republicans of Missouri have become an organization, and point to victory ahead.

"He is a safe, honest, conservative, sane man, who should be elected national committeeman."

At the close of Mr. Monroe's speech Mr. Harts moved that Mr. Akins and Mr. Dickey appear before the delegation "just to show them selves and let us see what they are like," as the speaker explained.

This motion was voted down overwhelmingly. The chairman then ordered a roll call.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

When the vote was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous, offered by Mr. F. Niedringhaus, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Dickey was then elected.

"GO BUY A THOUSAND ROOSEVELT PICTURES"

—SENATOR LODGE.

Personal Representative of President Nearly Had Fits When He Saw Coliseum and the Big Hanna Picture—
"Get a Big One," He Ordered.

From a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Senator Lodge almost had convulsions when he found that there were only two pictures of President Roosevelt, and twenty-eight of Senator Hanna in the Coliseum, where the convention is to be held.

"What does it mean?" he shouted, and every member of the Massachusetts delegation turned pale.

"Is he going to declare it off?" they asked each other; "or will he paint a picture of the President to rival that of Senator Hanna, which is so prominently shown?"

The Massachusetts delegation said nothing in answer to Senator Lodge's question, but the Senator himself took action. He drove to the hall.

"I'm surprised that the Republican gathering of Republicans should attempt to hold a convention without the enabling features of the President, Theodore Roosevelt, to inspire enthusiasm. It's a shame," said the Senator to Chairman Raymond of the local committee, which had charge of the decorations of the hall.

"I have flags and bunting," protested Mr. Raymond.

"But I see no pictures of the great leader of the Republican party," Senator Lodge said, turning his cold, gray eye about the hall.

"Go buy pictures of Theodore Roosevelt and scatter them about the hall to the best advantage," Senator Lodge ordered. "Charge them to the national committee if you cannot furnish them. We must have Roosevelt's picture. What would a convention to nominate Roosevelt be without his picture?"

Chairman Raymond, who weighs more than three hundred pounds, began to groan. He went out and used the telephone to such an extent that within an hour the Roosevelt picture market was decidedly dullish.

Within an hour his agents had purchased

PLATFORM OF STAND PAT, WITH REVISION BLUFF

Only Sop to Readjusters Is the Declaration That the Tariff "May Be" Changed When Conditions Warrant, If the Men Do.

FIGHT OF REVISIONISTS IS DOOMED TO FAILURE

Packed Committee on Resolutions Will Carry Out Roosevelt's Positive Orders, Brought by Senator Egan, to the Very Letter.

From a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 21.—President Roosevelt and the "stand patters" have packed the committee on resolutions against the tariff revisionists of the Northwest. The committee will be composed of men who will prevent any change in the original tariff plank as submitted in the platform brought by Senator Lodge, which has the endorsement of the President.

The tariff plank in the platform is modeled after the statement in the Massachusetts platform, and does not advocate revision in any way. It does contain the declaration that if tariff revision shall become necessary the Republican party can depend on to meet the issue when it arrives. It also says that tariff schedules are not sacred, and may be changed when conditions warrant such changes.

That is as far as the platform goes with regard to tariff revision, and the "stand patters" say this will have to satisfy the advocates of the "Iowa idea," the "re-adjusters" and the general revisionists as it is all they will get.

The tariff revisionists, led by Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, who is acting for Gov. Cummings and his followers and other tariff revisionists of the northwest, have been endeavoring vainly to stir up enough sentiment among delegates to make a showing before the committee on resolutions. In order to help out Hansbrough in his fight, Gov. Cummings of Iowa has become a redhot advocate of the party recognizing the "Iowa idea."

NO FIGHT IN CONVENTION.

The tariff revision fight, from present indications, will begin and end in the committee on resolutions. Friends of the President have been seeing the leaders of the state delegations and insisting that only men who will stand against any "tariff tinkering" be selected for the committee on resolutions. Even Senator Egan, brought in as a representative of the revision sentiment, says he will not take the fight for revision on the floor of the convention if beaten in the committee on resolutions. Gov. Cummings has said the same, and as there is no likelihood of a minority report being made, the chances for a public discussion of the party's tariff troubles are not probable.

Representatives of the Home Market Club are going about telling the delegations that, as leaders of their party's platform there will be a lack of campaign funds from sources which have not been unfriendly.

This argument is proving effective despite the suggestion given out by the Home Market Club that the party's campaign funds are not needed much money to run this campaign.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw called today and conferred with Senator Lodge regarding the platform.

"It's a stand pat platform," he said after his conference with Senator Lodge. "The main issue in the campaign and the plank of this year will follow that of the last year. The party was in the majority in 1900 and we were victorious. Conditions are no different today than they were then."

The "Iowa idea" has been repudiated by the state delegation from Iowa and that will end that.

"While the platform does not demand revision, it reserves the right to demand revision in the near future. We are standing pat."

The party's attitude toward the trustee is approved in an eloquent plank in the platform, but there are no recommendations for future legislation by Congress.

IOWA DEFEATS CUMMINS.

Gov. Cummings of Iowa and his "Iowa idea" met their Waterloo when the state delegation caucused today. The delegates voted unanimously to follow the instructions of the state convention, which declared for a "stand pat" policy.

Senator Hansbrough insists that notwithstanding the defeat of the "Iowa idea" by the Iowa delegation, he will make his fight for tariff revision. It is freely predicted that the "stand pat" policy will know how conventions are run that Senator Hansbrough's tariff revision resolution will be defeated by three votes to one when it reaches the committee on resolutions.

The Roosevelt platform, which Senator Lodge brought in, had a few minor changes made in it today. The senator, Eliza Root, Secretary Shaw and others had a hard time to get out of the situation, but the phraseology of one section was changed on the advice of Eliza Root.

Mr. Root's advice legal and thought the Roosevelt program was too vague.

"The platform will be made as short as possible," said Senator Lodge. "I shall have the legislative and congressional experience in condensation, he declared.

"But, of course, my efforts may amount to nothing. I have a right to do what I can to do when they meet to further discuss matters but I shall do my best to get a short, concise platform."

WOMAN'S RIGHTS PLANK.

The committee on resolutions will be appointed tomorrow immediately after Eliza Root's speech, and will report on Wednesday.

Of course there will be attempts made to secure declarations not now in the platform.

Woman's rights are championed in a circular being sent to all delegations to the convention.

The request is made by the National Woman Suffrage Association that the following plank be placed in the platform:

"Resolved, that we favor the submission by Congress to the various state legislatures of an amendment to the federal constitution forbidding disenfranchisement of citizens on account of sex."

The national ladies' statement from the standpoint of women and is signed by the following officers of the association: Susan B. Anthony, president; Dr. Anna H. Shaw, president; Carrie Chapman Catt; Kate M. Jordan; Alice Stone Blackwell; Harriet Taylor Lyon; Laura Clay and Dr. Clara Smith Eaton.

SAYS LOST $140 ON BOAT

Fair Visitor Falls Victim to "Cappers" on Excursion Boat and Plays Spindle Game.

Following the second exposé of the gambling on the excursion boats comes another story of a passenger-victim on the "Erwin H. Spence" Fair visitor from Richmond, Va., who is now staying at 2835 Pine street, says that he was a passenger, he walked up to the spindle game. He was induced to play a quarter he says, and then learned that the stakes were to be doubled. This seemed square and urged by the numerous spectators, he agreed to the condition to double his wager at every turn of the pointer. He was finally obliged to quit. Wilkinson says he lost $140.

50,000 TAILORS STRIKE.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A strike of 50,000 persons employed here in the clothing trade has called to take effect at once. Most of the tailors involved are employed by middlemen or contractors. Strikes of similar character are an annual occurrence among the tailors, but the present one involves opposition to the "open shop" declaration of the Manufacturers' National Association.

MULHALL VICTIMS BETTER

Ernest Morgan, Worst Wounded of the Three Men Shot, Shows Improved Condition.

Ernest Morgan, the boy who was one of the three shot by Zach Mulhall Saturday night on the Pike, passed a favorable night, and his condition Tuesday morning was considerably better than at any time since he was wounded.

He slept seven hours, and Tuesday morning his pulse was 80 and his temperature 100.

Dr. Laddley, medical director of the Emergency Hospital at the Pike, where the boy still is, said Tuesday morning that Morgan's condition was more favorable, but was still unwilling to express an opinion as to his recovery.

As was told in the late editions of Monday's Post-Dispatch, Mulhall is out of 1000 feet of his sign when Mulhall, Frank Reed, the man at whom Mulhall was shooting, refused to prosecute.

Both Reed and John Murray, who were wounded during the Saturday night fusillade, are recovering rapidly.

Through Sleepers Cleveland, O., via Vandalia-Pennsylvania, 12:45 noon daily.

Pure, Healthful, Refreshing Apollinaris

THE HIGHEST SCIENTIFIC AUTHORITIES declare Apollinaris to be the pre-eminently pure and healthful Table Water and that it is bottled at the Spring, Neuenahr, Germany, under the most favorable conditions.

Address, UNITED AGENCY CO., 503-5th Ave., New York, for a Phil. May Sketch.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES AT 512 WASHINGTON AVE., 2nd FLOOR, OVER S & 10 CENT STORES.

Every $20.00 and $25.00 Ladies' Silk Shirt—Waist Suit in our store cut to ..... $15 On Credit

—NO MONEY DOWN—

Men's and Boys' Dept. Crash Homespun Coat and Trousers, strictly all wool, formerly sold for $10.00, now $7.50 On Credit

Hats and Shoes AT POPULAR PRICES Home of the Union Label Open Mondays Until 8:00 Every Day Until 7:00 Saturdays Until 10:30

HOYLE & RARICK, 512 Washington Av., Up Stairs

GREATLY REDUCED

Round trip rates in effect daily to Summer tourist points in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia, limited to October 31st for return.

MAMMOTH CAVE and RETURN, $11.75

Through trains. Latest improved sleeping and reclining chair cars (seats free). Dining cars.

TICKET OFFICES: 236 N. Broadway, Transportation Bldg., World's Fair and Union Stations.

J. E. DAVENPORT, Division Passenger Agent.

Only Sop to Readjusters Is the Declaration That the Tariff "May Be" Changed When Conditions Warrant, If the Men Do.

FIGHT OF REVISIONISTS IS DOOMED TO FAILURE

Packed Committee on Resolutions Will Carry Out Roosevelt's Positive Orders, Brought by Senator Egan, to the Very Letter.

From a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 21.—President Roosevelt and the "stand patters" have packed the committee on resolutions against the tariff revisionists of the Northwest. The committee will be composed of men who will prevent any change in the original tariff plank as submitted in the platform brought by Senator Lodge, which has the endorsement of the President.

The tariff plank in the platform is modeled after the statement in the Massachusetts platform, and does not advocate revision in any way. It does contain the declaration that if tariff revision shall become necessary the Republican party can depend on to meet the issue when it arrives. It also says that tariff schedules are not sacred, and may be changed when conditions warrant such changes.

That is as far as the platform goes with regard to tariff revision, and the "stand patters" say this will have to satisfy the advocates of the "Iowa idea," the "re-adjusters" and the general revisionists as it is all they will get.

The tariff revisionists, led by Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, who is acting for Gov. Cummings and his followers and other tariff revisionists of the northwest, have been endeavoring vainly to stir up enough sentiment among delegates to make a showing before the committee on resolutions. In order to help out Hansbrough in his fight, Gov. Cummings has said the same, and as there is no likelihood of a minority report being made, the chances for a public discussion of the party's tariff troubles are not probable.

Representatives of the Home Market Club are going about telling the delegations that, as leaders of their party's platform there will be a lack of campaign funds from sources which have not been unfriendly.

This argument is proving effective despite the suggestion given out by the Home Market Club that the party's campaign funds are not needed much money to run this campaign.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw called today and conferred with Senator Lodge regarding the platform.

"It's a stand pat platform," he said after his conference with Senator Lodge. "The main issue in the campaign and the plank of this year will follow that of the last year. The party was in the majority in 1900 and we were victorious. Conditions are no different today than they were then."

The "Iowa idea" has been repudiated by the state delegation from Iowa and that will end that.

"While the platform does not demand revision, it reserves the right to demand revision in the near future. We are standing pat."

The party's attitude toward the trustee is approved in an eloquent plank in the platform, but there are no recommendations for future legislation by Congress.

NO FIGHT IN CONVENTION.

The tariff revision fight, from present indications, will begin and end in the committee on resolutions. Friends of the President have been seeing the leaders of the state delegations and insisting that only men who will stand against any "tariff tinkering" be selected for the committee on resolutions. Even Senator Egan, brought in as a representative of the revision sentiment, says he will not take the fight for revision on the floor of the convention if beaten in the committee on resolutions. Gov. Cummings has said the same, and as there is no likelihood of a minority report being made, the chances for a public discussion of the party's tariff troubles are not probable.

Representatives of the Home Market Club are going about telling the delegations that, as leaders of their party's platform there will be a lack of campaign funds from sources which have not been unfriendly.

This argument is proving effective despite the suggestion given out by the Home Market Club that the party's campaign funds are not needed much money to run this campaign.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw called today and conferred with Senator Lodge regarding the platform.

"It's a stand pat platform," he said after his conference with Senator Lodge. "The main issue in the campaign and the plank of this year will follow that of the last year. The party was in the majority in 1900 and we were victorious. Conditions are no different today than they were then."

The "Iowa idea" has been repudiated by the state delegation from Iowa and that will end that.

"While the platform does not demand revision, it reserves the right to demand revision in the near future. We are standing pat."

The party's attitude toward the trustee is approved in an eloquent plank in the platform, but there are no recommendations for future legislation by Congress.

NO FIGHT IN CONVENTION.

The tariff revision fight, from present indications, will begin and end in the committee on resolutions. Friends of the President have been seeing the leaders of the state delegations and insisting that only men who will stand against any "tariff tinkering" be selected for the committee on resolutions. Even Senator Egan, brought in as a representative of the revision sentiment, says he will not take the fight for revision on the floor of the convention if beaten in the committee on resolutions. Gov. Cummings has said the same, and as there is no likelihood of a minority report being made, the chances for a public discussion of the party's tariff troubles are not probable.

Representatives of the Home Market Club are going about telling the delegations that, as leaders of their party's platform there will be a lack of campaign funds from sources which have not been unfriendly.

This argument is proving effective despite the suggestion given out by the Home Market Club that the party's campaign funds are not needed much money to run this campaign.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw called today and conferred with Senator Lodge regarding the platform.

"It's a stand pat platform," he said after his conference with Senator Lodge. "The main issue in the campaign and the plank of this year will follow that of the last year. The party was in the majority in 1900 and we were victorious. Conditions are no different today than they were then."

The "Iowa idea" has been repudiated by the state delegation from Iowa and that will end that.

"While the platform does not demand revision, it reserves the right to demand revision in the near future. We are standing pat."

The party's attitude toward the trustee is approved in an eloquent plank in the platform, but there are no recommendations for future legislation by Congress.

NO FIGHT IN CONVENTION.

The tariff revision fight, from present indications, will begin and end in the committee on resolutions. Friends of the President have been seeing the leaders of the state delegations and insisting that only men who will stand against any "tariff tinkering" be selected for the committee on resolutions. Even Senator Egan, brought in as a representative of the revision sentiment, says he will not take the fight for revision on the floor of the convention if beaten in the committee on resolutions. Gov. Cummings has said the same, and as there is no likelihood of a minority report being made, the chances for a public discussion of the party's tariff troubles are not probable.

Representatives of the Home Market Club are going about telling the delegations that, as leaders of their party's platform there will be a lack of campaign funds from sources which have not been unfriendly.

This argument is proving effective despite the suggestion given out by the Home Market Club that the party's campaign funds are not needed much money to run this campaign.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw called today and conferred with Senator Lodge regarding the platform.

"It's a stand pat platform," he said after his conference with Senator Lodge. "The main issue in the campaign and the plank of this year will follow that of the last year. The party was in the majority in 1900 and we were victorious. Conditions are no different today than they were then."

The "Iowa idea" has been repudiated by the state delegation from Iowa and that will end that.

"While the platform does not demand revision, it reserves the right to demand revision in the near future. We are standing pat."

SIDELIGHTS OF THE CONVENTION

BY POST-DISPATCH STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

"Thank You," Said Fairbanks.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Texas Republican delegates tried to "smoke out" Senator Fairbanks last evening by calling on him at his headquarters in the Auditorium annex and notifying him of the resolution which they had just passed censuring him for his opposition to the nomination.

They got smiles and pleasant handshakes, but nothing more committing than "Thank you, gentlemen," and the Senator said that they wanted assurance that the resolution was opposed by several members of the delegation, who added that they wanted assurance that the committee to his support.

To pacify this element, it was agreed that after passing the resolution the senator should be interviewed.

Webster Flanagan of Austin, whose "What are we here for" in the convention was one of the most famous, was selected to address the senator.

"Four years ago," said Senator Fairbanks, without losing the smile with which he was sweetening his grip on the senator's hand, "and now we have indorsed you for vice-president!"

The senator gave a particular indorsement to each man introduced to him as the well-liked line passed out.

Offices Thick in Texas.

CHICAGO, June 21.—One federal office for every 44 Republicans in Texas was the inspiring prospect which Cecil A. Lyon, native electric national committeeman, held out to the delegates when he addressed the acceptance at their meeting at the Grand Pacific Hotel.

The reason of the occasion was marred only by the inconstant motions of "Goose-neck" Bill McDonald, regarded as E. H. Root's "boy," who was unable to make on nearly every question considered by the delegation. When his motions were acceded to with those of the Lyon organization, the delegates proceeded to the Fair and the younger men are promising to set a swift pace down the Pike at the meeting of the national committee.

In taking the lead in the campaign, Mr. Lyon, Mr. Lyon said that there were 176,000 Republicans and 4000 federal offices in Texas, and urged immediate action. This was shown in the unanimous election of the following convention committee slate:

Credentialed—Webster Flanagan, Austin; Senator and Chairman of Business—H. T. Teller, San Antonio; Permanent Organization—M. Ferguson, Houston.

Platform—J. J. Rosenthal, Galveston; To Notify Presidential Nominee—Sloan, To Notify Vice-Presidential Nominee—C. Dixon, Cleveland; who will go to Washington to notify the President Roosevelt of his nomination; he is a former member of the Rough Riders; Col. Roosevelt's command.

Iowa Ready for Band Wagon.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Iowa went into the convention without instructions as to a vice-presidential nominee. Full discussion at the meeting of the delegates showed that the one man who had the strongest claim enough to secure an anti-convention indorsement and the delegates adjourned without naming a candidate.

Ernest E. Hart of Council Bluffs, known as "the old man," was re-elected national chairman without opposition.

"Come Seven: Come Seven" Won.

CHICAGO, June 21.—There are seven white men and eleven negroes on the "black and tan" delegation approved by the national committee as the official representatives of Louisiana. The "black and tan" cabalistic combination of figures is one which the unseated "lily whites" have not been able to match. It is the opinion of many that when the convention as a whole shall have passed on the rival claims it will verdict in favor of the negroes.

There are negroes on the "lily white" delegation, and they are not "sympathetic" with the idea that the seating of their "black and tan" brethren should be on a par among the negroes of the North and East.

Ed. G. H. W. Warriner, a survivor of reconstruction days, leads the "lily white" delegation, who issued a pamphlet containing their side of the case. A resolution was passed to support the negroes, but that when the convention as a whole shall have passed on the rival claims it will verdict in favor of the negroes.

The "lily whites" are at the Wellington Hotel, the "black and tan" at a large boarding house near the Coliseum.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform. They will be represented with a woman in the convention hall, and these have been apportioned to them as individuals, not as a slate.

"We haven't a suggestion to make about the platform candidates," said Mr. J. E. Parker, president of the association, who is welcoming members with a United States senator from that state.

gates and other visitors at the headquarters. "Some of us believe in woman suffrage, and some of us do not, but we do our work in these lines through other organizations. This association seeks only to teach the people of the Republic to work chiefly through the home and through educational effort among foreign-born citizens."

The association is under contract with the national committee to deliver speeches in the four states where women have the right to vote. Miss Helen Varich Howells, who is in charge of the headquarters here, will be in charge of the work in New York.

Naturalization is a part of the work in which, according to Miss Howells, the association has been of great value to the party organization in the tenement district in New York City.

Among the women of the delegation are Mrs. West of Idaho, a citizen delegate, and the only woman who will have a seat on the committee of the convention. Mrs. Alice D. Powers, wife of the Senator from Iowa, and Mrs. Brutus J. Clay, whose husband, the only living son of Gen. Clay, is a member of the delegation from the Eighth Kentucky district. Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the favorite in the vice-presidential contest, is member of the ice-cream committee.

The visitors are being entertained this afternoon by the Chicago Women's Club.

NOT A RAILROAD HARVEST.

CHICAGO, June 21.—All of the members of the Missouri delegation secured free railroad transportation. Some of them had two or three tickets apiece.

Out of 250 delegates there from the West, Out of 250 delegates there from the West, not one paid more than 6 per cent paid their railroad fare.

DEPEW TO SEE THE PIKE.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Senator Depew and many of New York's 78 delegates as accept his invitation to see the Pike, not to make on nearly every question considered by the delegation. When his motions were acceded to with those of the Lyon organization, the delegates proceeded to the Fair and the younger men are promising to set a swift pace down the Pike at the meeting of the national committee.

In taking the lead in the campaign, Mr. Lyon said that there were 176,000 Republicans and 4000 federal offices in Texas, and urged immediate action. This was shown in the unanimous election of the following convention committee slate:

Credentialed—Webster Flanagan, Austin; Senator and Chairman of Business—H. T. Teller, San Antonio; Permanent Organization—M. Ferguson, Houston.

Platform—J. J. Rosenthal, Galveston; To Notify Presidential Nominee—Sloan, To Notify Vice-Presidential Nominee—C. Dixon, Cleveland; who will go to Washington to notify the President Roosevelt of his nomination; he is a former member of the Rough Riders; Col. Roosevelt's command.

Iowa Ready for Band Wagon.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Iowa went into the convention without instructions as to a vice-presidential nominee. Full discussion at the meeting of the delegates showed that the one man who had the strongest claim enough to secure an anti-convention indorsement and the delegates adjourned without naming a candidate.

Ernest E. Hart of Council Bluffs, known as "the old man," was re-elected national chairman without opposition.

"Come Seven: Come Seven" Won.

CHICAGO, June 21.—"What are we here for?" is a question heard with painful frequency at the corridors of the hotels and the invariable answer is: "Simply to ratify a political program concerning which prominent Republicans disagree."

"We have assembled in Chicago," said former Representative John Flanagan, of the "lily white" delegation, "to do the purpose of the party which is to nominate a man whom we do not want, and yet as far as we are concerned, we shall have no objection to the ghost of Mark Hanna."

There are negroes on the "lily white" delegation, and they are not "sympathetic" with the idea that the seating of their "black and tan" brethren should be on a par among the negroes of the North and East.

Ed. G. H. W. Warriner, a survivor of reconstruction days, leads the "lily white" delegation, who issued a pamphlet containing their side of the case. A resolution was passed to support the negroes, but that when the convention as a whole shall have passed on the rival claims it will verdict in favor of the negroes.

The "lily whites" are at the Wellington Hotel, the "black and tan" at a large boarding house near the Coliseum.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

They will be represented with a woman in the convention hall, and these have been apportioned to them as individuals, not as a slate.

"We haven't a suggestion to make about the platform candidates," said Mr. J. E. Parker, president of the association, who is welcoming members with a United States senator from that state.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

They will be represented with a woman in the convention hall, and these have been apportioned to them as individuals, not as a slate.

"We haven't a suggestion to make about the platform candidates," said Mr. J. E. Parker, president of the association, who is welcoming members with a United States senator from that state.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

They will be represented with a woman in the convention hall, and these have been apportioned to them as individuals, not as a slate.

"We haven't a suggestion to make about the platform candidates," said Mr. J. E. Parker, president of the association, who is welcoming members with a United States senator from that state.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

Platform Don't Worry Women.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Women are doing political work at the Palmer House, where the Women's National Republican Association is in session, and, in return, ask only the privilege of seeing the men do their part of the work.

The women are not to be outdone. The ladies party work will not ask the convention to reward them by putting a woman suffrage and temperance plank in the platform.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN IS DEAD.
Cuts Arteries in Throat, Wrists and Legs With a Razor.

An unidentified man, apparently 45, was found dead in a room at 235 North Broadway Monday afternoon, as told in late editions of the Post-Dispatch. He had committed suicide by cutting his throat, the arteries in both wrists and in his legs. The room in which he died is a side room on the second floor. A knife, some keys, $3 in money and two stamped envelopes of the Seattle (Wash.) firm were found on the body.

The man rented the room from Mrs. Anna Larkin, 42 North Broadway, late Saturday evening, and probably committed suicide soon afterwards.

OUTING SUITS

We're sure that if all men knew the extra merit contained in our offerings of summer comforts without the sacrifice of a particle of style, we'd do all of the hot weather business.

Unlined Homespuns, Tweeds and Serges, designed by skilled intelligence and containing the goodness of thorough painstaking workmanship — the results are faultlessly graceful garments that retain their elegance to the end.

$12 and up to $35

Werner Bros.

The Republic Bldg.,
On Olive St. at Seventh.

Feel Well—Bright—Vigorous Today.

Quick Bracing Health—Given by the Celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

IT GIVES ALMOST INSTANT EFFECT

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

MR. F. M. LOCKARD.

Before the First Bottle of Paine's Celery Compound Was Half Used He Was Feeling Like a New Man.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your wonderful remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. I suffered for ten years with weakness and nervous prostration, and doctored with a number of physicians, spending about $150, but received no benefit. A friend advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound. I bought a bottle and BEFORE IT WAS HALF GONE I was a new man. Have now taken five and am entirely cured. My wife

HUSH FALLS ON CHICAGO; LODGE BRINGS THE CAN

He Inform the Anxious Delegates That in the "Can" He "Has the Platform and Resolutions That Express the Will of the Free People."

BY SAMUEL G. BLYTHE,
Staff Correspondent of the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 21.—A great hush fell over Michigan avenue. So, also, did a few delegates from the western states, but the poor chaps had been up all night.

The special policeman in front of the Astor hotel pulled his great red mustache nervously.

Did you ever see that mustache?

It is one of the wonders of the West. It is visible for two blocks on the darkest night.

But to return: a great hush fell over Michigan avenue. It was so still that Uncle Shelby Culom's natural conversational voice could be heard.

Silence.

The international coalmen hushed the cries of anguish over the Corcoran appointment. The negro delegates paused in their mad search for the emoluments that have hitherto gone with their proud position.

He came.

Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts walked into the hotel.

"Ah—h."

It was the demonstration of the lowering crowd.

A man carried his grip. Another wrote his name on the register for him. A third had his overcoat.

But mark. In one hand was a round package, which he would intrust to no one, although many, eager to serve, sought to reach him with their burdens.

Round? Yes, indeed. Cylindrically all the time implies.

Men seemed to touch the mysterious package. Many looked at it and shuddered. There were graybeards in that assemblage who had fought the portent of it.

IT WAS THE CAN.

In a moment the onlookers, with that intelligence sometimes displayed by the proletariat, understood that the White House.

An inspiring moment, truly.

The elevator was cleared.

Henry Cabot Lodge went to his palatial apartments.

The President's messengers and spokesmen must be here.

Soon word came down that the old-time leaders should pay their respects.

They went up in twos and threes, and stood around, after greetings had been exchanged.

Henry Cabot Lodge was gracious, as well as dignified, and the men who came in to him must be to be otherwise in those like him.

The round package stood on the table.

The international committee and so-called leaders gathered around it.

"When," asked Gov. Franklin Murphy, "bolder than the rest, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all affairs of state.

"But," spoke up Nathan B. Scott, incoming messenger boy, "when will you open it?"

Mr. Lodge stepped to the table. Carefully, with no undue haste, he un wound the package.

The can was disclosed, bright, shiny, hermetically sealed.

On the lid were the letters "T. R." and the date "June 21." Not to be opened until the proper time—keep dry."

"There," said Henry Cabot Lodge. "I am sending the can to you, to the emblem of the Roosevelt party, the can."

"Can a convention be canned?" asked an unidentified skulker on the edge of the group.

"I can," replied Mr. Lodge, with that serious smile with which he conducts all

THROWN OUT OF 20-STORY WINDOW

Man's Skull Fractured and Two Brothers and Their Mother Are Arrested.

A fight among negroes at 1006 Chestnut street at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning terminated in James Watts being thrown out of a second-story window. His skull was fractured on the sidewalk below.

Peter Pitchlow was passing the house when he heard sounds of battle overhead, and the next moment saw a man's form fall out of the window. He called a policeman, who found Watts unconscious and sent him to the City Hospital.

Harry Roane of 265 Pine street and Arthur Roane of 1006 Chestnut street, brothers, and their mother, found the room from which Watts had been thrown and were arrested. A 28-caliber revolver was found in the room.

Restaurant de Paris.

The French restaurant in "Pacis" on the Pike is now open. It is the most elegantly appointed and has best service and cuisine on the Fair grounds. Special arrangements made for private parties and large banquets. Bell Phone 172.

FORMER MAYOR AMES DYING. Little Hope That Indictor Executive Will Survive the Day.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 21.—Former Mayor Ames of Minneapolis is dying, according to his physicians. If there is no improvement in his condition before right day, it is unlikely that he will survive another day.

Ames is under indictment for receiving bribes from women of the town. Once he was convicted on the charge, but he appealed and was not tried again.

In order to bring the jury disagreed, a new trial was indicated again and his trial was set for July 10.

It is unlikely that his case was continued after the jury had been subpoenaed.

LIGHTNING FLASHES REVEALED BODIES

Slocum List of Dead Reaches 770—Rockefeller Pledges Funds for Relief Committee Work.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The harvest of victims who lost their lives in the Gen. Slocum disaster continued today. All through the night, despite the terrific electrical storm that swept over the city, the searchers held to their grousers work, and today the bodies recovered had reached 770 and every hour of the day adds to the number.

It was hoped that identification would materially reduce the large list of missing before night. An alarming result of the developments of the last three or four days has been that, although more than 200 bodies have been taken from the river, the list of missing has remained almost unchanged.

Today, when the total of bodies recovered exceeded 770, the list of missing continued well into the 800s.

Last night proved the most trying period in their long vigil for the searchers who patrolled the river. Drenched and blinded by the downpour of rain, the workers kept to the river, the life boats circling about the wide stretch of water between New Brothers' Island and the mainland. On the riverbank, the searchers, listing, revealed two bodies floating together about a hundred yards from the shore. A few moments later a body was thrown in and an instant after had been added to the row of unidentified dead. In like manner other bodies were found at many points, and the number of recoveries steadily increased.

Many of the bodies taken from the river today were in such a condition as to make identification difficult.

A communication from John D. Rockefeller has been received by the committee to the Slocum victims, giving the names and orphans of the Slocum horror, promising to make good any deficiency in the fund after the voluntary contributions had ceased. Seven thousand dollars had already been collected. Arrangements are being made to find homes for the orphans, and to care for them in the various institutions. The committee will be incorporated and all money placed in the hands of trustees.

88c YARD WIDE BLACK AND WHITE CHINA SILKS.

At 9:00 a. m. for One-Half Hour.

ALL-SILK YARD-WIDE WASH CHINA—So popular for shirt waists and suits, children's confirmation dresses, etc.—perfectly finished, lustrous fabric, especially desired for its washable properties—would be good value at 88c yard—Wednesday.

56c

AMUSEMENTS.

ODEON THEATER Grand and Finest KIRALFY'S LOUISIANA PURCHASE SPECTACLE

600 Performers—2000 Costumes.

GORGEIOUS BALLET
EVENINGS 8:30-9:00, 75c, $1.00, $1.50
MATINEES: WED. SAT. 2:30, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00
SUNDAY 3:30, 50c, 75c, $1.00
Downtown Ticket Office, C. & A. B. B., Sixte, and Olive.

DELMAR GARDEN LOUISIANA

BIGGEST HIT EVER ON THE STAGE—New York Dramatic Mirror.

PRICES: NIGHTS, 50c to $2

ST. LOUIS' GREATEST RESORT,

ADMISSION TO 40-ACRE GARDEN,

20,000 ELECTRIC LIGHTS,

2000 AUTOMOBILES,

10,000 CHAIRS AND GROUNDS,

OPEN AIR RESTAURANT (AT DOWN TOWN PRICES.)

60-AMUSEMENT FEATURES—50

All Car Lines Lead to Delmar.

CRAWFORD 14th and Locust. Week MATS.

QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER

Lauges From Beginning to End.

Theater cool and comfortable, hottest weather.

Best New England Play Ever Written.

Night Prices—15, 25, 35, 50, 75c, $1.

FOREST PARK HIGHLANDS

THE BIG PLACE ON THE HILL.

Most Popular Family Resort in Leading Hotels.

JESS DANDY AND HIGGINS VAUDEVILLE

Admission to Hopkins Pavilion, Inc. Reserved seats, 25c and 50c.

WED. 14th and 15th MATS.

25c A Girl From Dixie.

30 Big Song Hits—Pretty Girls.

SURELY THE WORLD'S FAIR REGULAR MAT. SATURDAY.

WEST END HEIGHTS

Opposite S. E. Exchange. Week's Fair Gate.

Family Robert St. Louis.

The National Extravaganza Co. Another Mer

Harry Morris and THE SUMMER GIRL.

Catchy Music, Bright Comedy and Beautiful

Melodies at 4:30. Night Performance—$2.00.

Market Street Cars Direct—All buses transfer.

RACING.

ST. LOUIS FAIR ASSOCIATION

Vandeventer and Natural Bridge Road.

BEGINNING JUNE 11.

6 High-Class Races Daily

CLUB MEMBERS' HANDICAP ($50,000),

SATURDAY, JUNE 25.

Admission—Including Grand Stand—$1.00

High-Class Racing UNION JOCKEY CLUB

INDEPENDENT RACE TRACK.

The best equipped plant in the country, using avenue and Natural Bridge road.

LAFFY PRESIDENT.

LAFFY TOFFEE COMPANY.

P. J. CAGAMODY, GENERAL MANAGER.

CONTINUOUS RACE MEETING.

600 high-class races daily, commencing at 2:30 p. m.

Suburban cars run direct to Race Track. Other cars run direct to the Grandstand. Cars and riding arenas run within four blocks of the track. Suburban cars to grounds and Grandstand. Fare 5 cents.

ADMISSION, $1.00. INCLUDING GRANDSTAND.

BASEBALL TODAY.

American League Park

Grand and Sullivan Aves.

BROWNS VS.

DETROIT.

GAME STARTS AT 3:45 P. M.

BASEBALL TODAY

NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK, Vandeventer

ter Av. and Natural Bridge Road.

PITTSBURG VS.

ST. LOUIS

Game Called at 3:45 O'Clock.

Suburban Garden.

GREATER VAUDEVILLE.

ALL Musical Kostüm, Warren and Blanchard, Reid and Gilbert, Spiegel-

THIS Bres., Chas. Burkhardt, Kineto-graph—WEEKLY—Admission to Grounds—FREE.

EXCURSION TO CAIRO

BY FORESTERS' LEAGUE,

Saturday, June 25th,

Via Mobile and Ohio R. R.

Leave Union Station 8:00 p. m. East 24.

2:30, 4:30, 6:30 P. M.

ROUND TRIP TICKETS, $2.00.

Swedish Day—June 24—Swedish Da-

SWEDISH STUDENTS' CHORUS.

UNIVERSITY OF LUND, SWEDEN.

Soloist—JOHN FORRELL, Baritone.

ROYAL MUSIC HALL, Olive and 19th Sts. 50c, 75c, $1.

Reserved Seats at Bollman's, 50c, 75c, $1.

GO TO THE ALPS AND SEE.

Go to SCHWEICKARD'S

PARK VIEW COTTAGE

And eat well and reasonable. Near Station 12, south of Texas State Building.

WEAK MEN!

STREVA

Developer Apples

Overcoming the blood and VARIOUS STRENGHTENING to Shrinkage or Underdeveloped Organs.

Call or Write to Dr. J. A. Ockerson, 1st Prince street, New York City.

THE STREVA COMPANY

Room 205, 810 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo.

ALL-SILK YARD-WIDE WASH CHINA—So popular for shirt waists and suits, children's confirmation dresses, etc.—perfectly finished, lustrous fabric, especially desired for its washable properties—would be good value at 88c yard—

Wednesday.

56c

Wednesday Bargains:

85c Colored and Black Mohair

At 9:00 a. m. for One-Half Hour.

At 9 a. m. Wednesday we will put on sale 50 pieces 46-inch Mohair Sicilian, in black and navy blue, a beautiful, lustrous cloth, well worth 85c per yard—for half-hour Wednesday at

39c

25c Washable Voiles

At 9:00 a. m. for One-Half Hour.

Tomorrow we shall offer as our special one case of full pieces, no remnants, of the very best quality washable Voiles, in all shades, solid colors and flake patterns, latest materials for shirt-waist suits, children's dresses, etc., warranted fast colors, and worth 25c—on sale promptly at 9 o'clock, yester-

12 1/2c

White Goods—35c French Lawns

At 9 a. m. for One-Half Hour.

45-inch Fine White French Lawns, very sheer and soft, always pretty for a summer white dress, will launder well and wear well, 35c values—Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock

15c

Men's 75c Underwear

At 9 a. m. for One-Half Hour.

Men's Fine Balbriggan Shirts or Drawers, samples and broken lots of fine 50c and 75c, all styles and all colors—choice for half hour Wednesday

25c

$3.00 Wash Suits for $1.00

COMPARISONS CAUSE SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Wife Cites Husband's Admiration for Other Women Among Her Allegations.

A petition for divorce was filed in the Circuit Court this morning by Ida M. Hill of 5206 Cote Brilliante avenue against Essex Hill, whom she charges with neglect and non-support.

Mrs. Hill also sets forth in her petition that her position was made intolerable by the frequency with which her husband compared her with other women when riding in street cars and other places where crowds congregated, and that the comparisons were unfavorable to her.

"It was her wont," she said, "to point out certain women and remark that they looked good to him, and that he would like to meet them." Mrs. Hill says he did succeed in meeting one of these women, and that she relieved him of his purse.

They were married, Mrs. Hill states, Oct. 14, 1891, and separated Jan. 8, 1904. They have three girls aged 11, 8 and 6, who are now living with Mrs. Hill's mother at the Cote Brilliante address. The trial will come up in October.

HEART FAILS UNDER OPERATION ORDEAL

John A. Lohrum's Condition Prevents Administration of Anesthetic and Shock Is Too Great.

John A. Lohrum, a well-known contractor and South Side politician, died at the home of his father-in-law, Jacob L. Heitz, Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock. He was born in St. Louis 37 years ago.

His death followed an operation for appendicitis, which had been too long delayed.

When an operation was found to be imperative it was discovered that the condition of his heart would not admit of him taking an anesthetic, and the operation was performed with him fully conscious of everything that was going on. His heart failed under the ordeal and he died.

Mr. Lohrum was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Woodmen of the World. He was well known in Democratic political circles in the South Side, and was the married son of Miss Nellie Heitz, who with one daughter, Marie, 10 years old, survives him.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 3137 South Jefferson avenue.

FAIR EMPLOYÉS SEEK A CHANGE

A Wireless Message Declares They Are Tired of Their Long Hours of Work.

CANNOT SEE THE EXPOSITION

Many Are Compelled to Stick to Their Tasks Fifteen Hours a Day.

Post-Dispatch World's Fair Bureau, by De Forest Wireless Telegraph.

Many Fair employés are looking for new jobs.

They are tired of the long hours and want something where the workday is shorter.

Many persons employed in the division of concessions and administration went to work at the Fair so that they might be able to see the exhibits. They find that they have little time for sightseeing.

Many of them work 15 hours a day. When they finish they are ready to go to bed. Even the illumination does not interest them.

When he arises in the morning, the Fair employé goes to work. He works all day and frequently parts of the night. He works in the dark, plays in the dark, and sees only the bare outside of it—or possibly a bit of the inside if it happens that he is assigned to a building.

A local merchant notified the Fair management Tuesday that he had received nine applications for positions from persons now employed at the Fair.

"What is the matter out there?" asked the merchant.

"Nothing in particular," answered one of the chiefs. "How many hours do you work your men?"

"Nothing in a day," said the merchant.

"That's better than 12 hours," said the chief. "I guess that explains the motive of your new applicants."

MONKEY SHOCKED TO DEATH ON POLE

Escapes From Cage and Runs Out on Wires, His Tail Touching Wire Where Insulation Had Worn Off.

Several hundred citizens of East St. Louis Monday afternoon were witnesses to an electrocution in which the sheriff of St. Clair County, Illinois, had no part and which not even the intervention of Gov. Yates could have prevented. There were many present who tried to have the sentence commuted to life imprisonment, but the victim would have none of that, and went to his death and was "game" to the last.

A monkey belonging to Sam Ward, a saloonkeeper at 49 Collingsville avenue, was the victim, and the only crime with which he could be charged was breaking the iron bars of his cage and gaining freedom, or "breaking jail," as the police would call it.

For a whole year the simian had been locked up with a brother monkey and two rambunctious apes. For a whole year he had clung to the iron bars of his cage, watching for a chance to break from his cage. Monday afternoon the cage came, and he was not slow in accepting it. He crawled into it, and the bars on the cage were loose and by pulling them to the side he found he could slip right through.

He leaped from the cage to the earth, free at last, but his escape was soon noticed and he was met and soys surrounded him, thinking to get him back in the cage. Instinct prompted him to run up a telephone pole in front of the Royal Hotel, where the persecutors began to pelt him with stones and prod him with poles from the hotel windows. To escape he ran up the wires. Unfortunately he had cut himself around one of the wires where the insulation had worn off. A shock ran through the monkey, there was a puff of smoke and he fell over dead.

WILL WALK FROM ATLANTA TO FAIR

J. A. Owens of Georgia City Says He Is Making Trip for Civic Prize.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 21.—J. A. Owens, who has started to walk from Atlanta to St. Louis in a net of $500, left the Union Station Monday, pushing a wheelbarrow before him.

The manner in which Mr. Owens will make the trip is unique. He will go as a representative of Atlanta, and everything that he carries with him will be made in Atlanta. The advertisements he will display in his wheelbarrow are of Atlanta's concern, and no other will be placed or considered.

Mr. Owens' route will be from Atlanta to Chattanooga to Nashville to Evansville to St. Louis. He is thoroughly familiar with the roads between Atlanta and St. Louis, having traveled over them many times during his 20 years service with a telephone company.

Mr. Owens made up by with a North Carolina man who doubted the sincerity of the high words of praise that Atlanta speak of their city. He added, "It's not any place in the world. One under took to demand that Atlanta would stand by their city, even to the extent of walking to St. Louis necessary."

The conditions are that Mr. Owens is to walk a certain number of hours each day for a certain number of days, and that he will stop at night.

His wheelbarrow has been painted and a picture of the city is painted upon it in an attractive manner. A number of Atlanta manufacturers have contributed articles for wearing apparel and household necessities for him to Mr. Owens' comfort during the long walk.

"You can say for me," said Mr. Owens yesterday, "that I am going to fulfill my part of the contract, and that I will roll my eyes out before I get to St. Louis after having complied with all the conditions imposed by the North Carolinian. I will show them that there is one Atlantan who is not a 'hossie' artist."

RAILWAY AGENTS MEET FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION

Post-Dispatch World's Fair Bureau, By De Forest Wireless Telegraph.

Two hundred members of the National Association of Railway Agents assembled at the Fair Tuesday for the ninth annual convention of the organization. De Forest, president of the association, when the last meeting was called Tuesday morning, W. G. Wagner responded. There will be a regular session of the inside Inn Tuesday evening.

The agents will be in session until Saturday.

EXTRA WEDNESDAY BARGAIN SPECIALS!

Schaeffer Bros.
ST. LOUIS CHEAPEST STORE
BROADWAY AND FRANKLIN AVE.

WEDNESDAY SHOE SPECIAL Main Floor
Wednesday at 8 o'clock sharp we will place on sale about 300 pairs Children's and Misses' Sandals—they are worth up to $1.45 a pair—while they last, your choice, pair.

50c

SUN BONNETS.

Ladies' and Children's Percale and Gingham Sunbonnets, worth up to 25c; Wednesday at

5c

Boys' Clothing.

$2.25
$2.25
$1.00 Wash Suits ..... 49c
75c Wash Suits ..... 29c
Men's $2.00 Pants ..... 98c

WALL PAPER.

10c
6c
2c
30 and 40c Wall Paper ..... 10c
20c and 25c Wall Paper ..... 6c
So and 10c Wall Paper ..... 2c

Let Mr. D. H. Beelman, our manager of the Wall Paper Department and Decorator, figure with you on your papering. He saves you half your money.

BARGAINS WEDNESDAY IN OUR SHIRT-WAIST SUIT DEPT.

SHIRT WAISTS—About 400 Waists in this lot—fine white Persian lawn, with lace or embroidery insertion, bertha with lace insertion, tucked front—in fact, all the latest styles for midsummer—your choice—values in this lot to $2.00.

98c

WHITE LAWN SHIRT-WAIST SUITS—Deep bertha style trimmings in Valenciennes lace, full flare tucked skirt, walking or dress length—this lot is worth $7.00—Wednesday special

$1.49

CHILDREN'S WHITE DRESSES—25 dozen of Children's White Dresses slightly soiled from handling—in this lot sold for $6.00—your choice Wednesday

day

VESTS—Ladies' Low Neck and Sleeveless Vests, taped and nicely finished—worth 50c—Wednesday

5c

UNDERWEAR—Children's Garment Underwear, silk finished and pearl buttons—all sizes—for

12c

HOSE—Children's Plain Black Ribbed Hose—15c quality—Wednesday

8c

MEN'S FINE ELASTIC SEAM DRAWERS—All well made and the kind you ordinarily pay 75c for—our price Wednesday

25c

MEN'S UNION SUITS—In mercerized silk and fine thread—worth $1.25 to $2.00—Wednesday's

69c

Men's Underwear

MEN'S FINE BALBRIGGAN SHIRTS AND DRAWERS—Worth 39c; Wednesday for

15c

MEN'S FINE SAMPLE SHIRTS AND DRAWERS—Plain and fancy worth 50c—Wednesday for

21c

MEN'S EXTRA FINE SAMPLE UNDERWEAR—Plain and fancy balbriggan, fine thread and mercerized silk—all silk trimmings and tailor-made seams—actually worth 75c—Wednesday for

31c

MEN'S FINE ELASTIC SEAM DRAWERS—All well made and the kind you ordinarily pay 75c for—our price Wednesday

25c

MEN'S UNION SUITS—In mercerized silk and fine thread—worth $1.25 to $2.00—Wednesday's

69c

50c

MAN DROWNS DAILY FOR FAIR CROWDS

Plays the Part of the Fool Who Rocks the Boat That Life Savers May Rescue Him.

GOES UNDER WATER TWICE

When It Seems All Over With Him the Crew Rushes Toward Him and He Is Saved.

How would you like to be the drowning man?

The drowning man is Charles Tucker of the United States Life Saving corps at the Fair.

Every week day Tucker gets into a small boat, rows to the center of the life-saving lake, and then deliberately capsizes the boat and allows his body to sink beneath the water.

This is done for the entertainment and instruction of visitors to the Fair. They must like it, too, for the life-saving exhibition is one of the most popular of Fair attractions.

While Tucker apparently tries to drown himself, it is really no danger. He has been in the life-saving service on the great lakes for the last 14 years. He has been under water for a full two minutes, and in his time he has performed some of the most hazardous of feats in saving shipwrecked persons on Lakes Superior and Ontario.

But if seeing a man drown is entertaining or instructive, Tucker's performance is just what you are looking for. It bears all the earmarks of the real thing.

Dressed in blue overalls, his head covered with an old straw hat, and assuming the most awkward manner, Tucker, who claims no ability as an actor, gives a realistic representation of the fool who rocks the boat.

Charles Tucker, Who Plays Drowning Man in Government Life-Saving Show

After three minutes of violent exertion, Tucker finally turns over and his occupant goes in the water. He flounders a minute, then goes down.

The men who run this exhibition with interest in the women shudder and think that Tucker is gone for good.

The moment the man sinks, however, his rescuers arrive, and six of them jump into the life boat and row rapidly toward the drowning man.

With a final, half way, the limp body of Tucker rises to the surface. His eyes are open, and he looks over the surface of the water. He means to live long enough for a straw hat if it doesn't find one. He goes down again, but the savers have arrived, and in a moment one of them has him by the hair. A moment later with the drowning man firm in his grasp. Five pairs of hands saved and took Tucker to the boat.

The hearts of the ladies quit fluttering, and the men pronounce the exhibition a "bully" show, while Tucker makes to his dressing room.

A notable feature of the government's life-saving exhibition is that it costs the spectator nothing.

NEW YORK CITY WILL OPEN BUILDING IN A WEEK

The New York City building on the Madison Avenue side of the fair is to be opened to the public on June 26. The building is almost completed and will be formally opened within a week. Gov. Odell will be present to cut the ribbon.

Thomas W. Hayes, the commissioner, and Ross B. Keogh, secretary, gave their first entertainment in the building Monday night, and the opening of the Fair being their guests.

The building is a partial reproduction of the New York City building at the Paris Exposition. It is to be the center of the displays. Commissioner Hayes has planned to interest experts and the general public in the construction of the models of the great subway system, of the wharfs, of the bridges and of scores of other famous features of New York, and of their connection with the accuracy and completeness that the experts can profit by a study of them and the ordinary visitor will be likewise interested.

There are maps of New York, including relief maps, which will receive great attention at the Paris Exposition, and many maps and charts illustrating the methods in public works in New York.

HOUSEBOAT BRINGS PARTY OF ILLINOISANS TO FAIR

The houseboat Rambler and the steamer Ianthe, owned by Commodore Charles McHugh of Rock Island, Ill., are at the foot of Elm Street, with the two ladies and Mr. and Mrs. McHugh visiting the Fair in their leisure.

The visit of the Rambler is the first this season, but the second trip will be made in the fall. The return trip to Rock Island will probably begin Sunday.

Commodore McHugh is proprietor of two hotels in Rock Island, one in Peoria, and who about to build a fourth at a cost of $50,000 in Cedar Rapids. He spent his summer on the Mississippi, and has made every arrangement for his comfort during his trip. Mrs. McHugh is one of Rock Island's most popular hostesses, and in consequence the Rambler usually has from six to a dozen guests on board. She has made a party of 12 for the present trip, besides Commodore and Mrs. McHugh, Mrs. George Rhein, Chicago; Dr. H. M. Hayes, health commissioner of the city; Mr. W. C. Rock, Rock Island; Frank Pease of Chicago and Rev. John W. Cummings of Arlington.

The Rambler was built three years ago.

It is 55 feet long by 14 feet beam. The house is built of wood, with a light wood deckhouse. Four staterooms, sumptuously fitted, will accommodate eight passengers, and back of them is a cosy little library. The Rambler has a large deck with a rare collection of steins. A grand piano with a self-playing attachment, a grand organ, a Victrola, and a large organ.

At the white and yellow flowers he looked longingly at the flowers on earth did you get all that dog fennel?"

Saril's Band to Play.

Park will be the scene of the first of the series of public concerts Tuesday evening. The concert will be given by C. A. Saril's band.

Before You Go to the Fair

Find a nice room through the Post-Dispatch Want Column.

RUGS

Specimens from India, Arabia, Persia and Turkey

$50,000.00 Invoice Recently Received.

Royal India Carpets Room Sizes $75.00 to $250.00
Shirwan Rugs (Hearth Sizes) $25.00 to $12.00
Shirwan Rugs (Hearth Sizes) $25.00 to $17.20
Kurdistanas (Hearth and Hall Sizes) $15.50 to $30.00
Belochistan Rugs (Bed ft.) $35.00 to $17.00
Persian and Turkish Carpets (Room Sizes) $25.00 to $200.00

DOMESTIC RUGS
(All sizes) Special values this week. It will pay you to see these prices.

J. KENNARD & SONS,
FOURTH AND WASHINGTON AV.

RUGS

WEDNESDAY'S PROGRAM AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

8 a. m.—Troop drill United States Marines, Plaza St. Louis.
Guard Mount by Scouts and Constabulary in the Philippine reservation.

9 a. m.—Buildings open.
Mint in operation in the Government building.

9:30 a. m.—Concert Indian School Band at the Indian School building.
Industrial classes of Indians at the Indian School.

Submarine mine demonstration in the Government building.

10 a. m.—Hourly phonograph teaching of foreign languages begins in Gold Hall, on the Model street.

Hourly biograph exhibitions begin in the naval exhibit at the Government building.

Queen's jubilee presents on view in the Hall of Congresses.
Manufacture of small arms and cartridges in the war department.

Heliograph demonstration by the signal corps, Government building.

Anthropometric demonstration begins in the Anthropology building.

Hourly biograph exhibition by Interior Department, Government building.

11 a. m.—Wireless telegraphic demonstration by the signal corps in the Government building.

Cascades act in operation.

11:30 a. m.—Radium exhibition by Interior Department in the Government building.

Organ recital at Festival Hall by Horatio W. Parker, New Haven, Mass.

1 to 2 p. m.—Illinois Naval Reserves drill on the lagoon.

Inspection and review K. P. Plaza of St. Louis.

1:30 p. m.—Concert by Indian band at the Indian School building.

Hourly demonstrations of teaching English to foreigners by phonograph in the Guild Hall, Model street.

2 to 3:30 p. m.—Concert by Webster Bands, Plaza St. Louis.

3 p. m.—Gardens open again.

Cascades act in motion.

Business meeting of the National Association of Railroad Agents at the Inside Inn.

2:30 p. m.—Drill by the United States Life Savers at the lake north of the Agricultural building.

3 p. m.—Tennessee building dedication and mass exhibition of turners at the Stadium.

Heliograph demonstration by the Signal Corps in the Government building.

Radium exhibition in the Government building.

Demonstration of founting dry dock in the Government building.

3:30 p. m.—Dress parade of the United States Marines, Plaza St. Louis.

4 p. m.—Wireless telegraph demonstration by the Signal Corps in the Government building.

4 to 5 p. m.—Drill by the Decatur, Ill., cadets, Plaza St. Louis.

4 to 6 p. m.—Concert by the Haskell Indian Band, Plaza St. Louis.

5 to 6 p. m.—Drill by the South Dakota Agricultural College Cadets, Administration court.

5:30 p. m.—Dress parade by the Scouts and Constabulary, Philip Morris building.

7:30 p. m.—Concert by the Bands Ross in the Machinery Garden.

Illustration begins.

8 to 10 p. m.—Concert by Haskell Indian Band, Plaza St. Louis.

8 p. m.—American oratorical contest among the representatives of the various state universities in the Hall of Congresses.

8:30 p. m.—Cascades set in operation.

11:30 p. m.—Grounds closed.

NO OLD MAIDS IN HINDOSTAN

Swami Abhedananda Tells Webster Groves Society That Are a Product of Civilization.

FRISCO SHOWS HOW IT'S GOVERNED

City's Building in Model Street Is Opened—Municipal Exhibits Are Splendid.

The San Francisco building in the Model street was opened to the public Tuesday without ceremony. During the afternoon the California University Mandarin and Glee club will give a concert, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Charles P. Wilcomb, custodian of the Golden Gate Park museum, is in charge of the building. It contains exhibits showing the methods of the different municipal departments of San Francisco. Photographs, charts and models depict the way streets are cleaned, the public health cared for and the police force managed. A relief of the city of San Francisco occupies a prominent position near the entrance to the building, showing the steamship and railroad lines connecting San Francisco with the rest of the world.

The club women of San Francisco have also made an elaborate display of ceramics made by themselves. One of the strongest organizations of women in San Francisco is the San Francisco Civic Club, which have made up the collection on exhibition.

Mr. Wilcomb is arranging besides the concert a series of illustrated lectures on the features of San Francisco and otherwise of the Golden Gate City.

The city building on the Model street is an ornate structure with a square tower in the center. It is near the center of the Model street.

TYPOTHECTAE BEGINS SESSION

Eighteenth Annual Convention Being Held in Century Building.

The eighteenth annual convention of the United Typothetae of America was called to order in the Century building at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Edward Stern, Two hundred and thirty-five members were present.

The organization is now in its eighteenth year, having been organized in 1886 in St. Louis, and now has branch organizations in nearly every large city in the United States.

The officers are: President, Willie Green, Chicago; vice-president, Edward Freer, St. Louis; secretary, and Thos. E. Donnelly, Chicago, treasurer.

A. A. AAL CLOAK CO.

515 Locust St.

The Busy Little Cloak House 'Round the Corner

B. GREENFIELD, manufacturer of the best India Linen Waists in America, sold us 365 dozen at a price. They are cheap at $2.25. He jobbed them at $24.00 per dozen. All you want Wednesday at

$1.00

384 Fancy Scotch Crash mixtures Walking Skirts, value $1.75. All you want Wednesday,

$1.00

"THE ONLY WAY."

CONTINUING IN THE LEAD AS IT HAS ALWAYS DONE

THE PIONEER LINE

Is providing the best and most complete passenger service between St. Louis and

CHICAGO

and now announces further improvements in its

MATCHLESS MORNING, NOON, NIGHT and MIDNIGHT TRAINS

Carrying new Smoking Cars, Revolving Parlor Chair Cars and Reclining Chair Cars (free of extra charge). Cafe-Library Smoking Room Cars, Dining Cars, Pullman Parlor Observation Cars, and the latest patterns of Pullman Drawing Room Sleeping Cars, lighted with electricity and cooled with electric fans.

ALL TRAINS VIA MERCHANTS' BRIDGE—NO TUNNEL.

Leave ST. LOUIS 9:04 12:02 9:00 11:40
Arrive CHICAGO 5:04 8:02 7:15 8:10

CHICAGO P.M. P.M. A.M. A.M.

All Trains Daily (Sundays Included).

FOR Low Rates to Summer Resorts

—Write to—

D. BOWES, A. G. P. A. C. & A. Ry., St. Louis, Mo.

Ticket Offices, Sixth and Olive Streets and Union Station.

CHICAGO & ALTON

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTINGS JOIN.
The Friends of William W. Moore will be pleased to learn that he is now associated with the May Co.'s clothing department, Washington and Avenue, and Sixth street. Mr. Moore has been identified with the retail clothing business in St. Louis for 24 years. The entire third floor is devoted exclusively to men's and boys' high character apparel.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTINGS JOIN.
The Friends of William W. Moore will be pleased to learn that he is now associated with the May Co.'s clothing department, Washington and Avenue, and Sixth street. Mr. Moore has been identified with the retail clothing business in St. Louis for 24 years. The entire third floor is devoted exclusively to men's and boys' high character apparel.

MORPHINE
COCAINE and other drug habits permanently cured in 10 to 15 days. No sickness or pain. No restraint. You may when satisfied you are cured. No dynamics used. Write for guarantee. A. Reed, M. D.
Box 64, Eureka Springs, Arkansas.

20 PAGES
PART TWO.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

62,892 CLASSIFIED
"WANTS" WERE PRINTED IN THE
DAILY AND SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH

PAGES 11-20

RUSSIANS NOW ADMIT 6500 MEN FELL IN FIGHT

Regimental Reports of the Struggle at Vafangow Show the Japanese Inflicted Staggering Losses on Troops Commanded by Stakelberg.

BEATEN ARMY IS AGAIN ATTACKED AND CRIPPLED

General Lack of Medical and Hospital Supplies Is Hampering the Red Cross Department in Its Care of the Wounded Soldiers.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21.—Reports of heavy fighting at Hal-Cheng are denied by the general staff. The Japanese are continuing to advance from Sui Yen and there are continuous skirmishes between the two forces, but no further advance of Gen. Oku's army has been reported.

The Russian losses at the battle of Vafangow are turning out to be heavier as the reports of the various regiments come in. They are now placed by a conservative official statement at 4000, but a usually well informed authority expects the total to be no less than 6500.

Special Cable to the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1904, by the Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, June 21.—The New-Chwang correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs under date of Monday:

"During the last 48 hours 2500 wounded have passed through Tachischow by train for Harbin from the front. There is general lack of medical provisions for the Russian wounded, resulting in piteous scenes of suffering.

"Renewed fighting took place yesterday at Kuan Went Sui, between Sui Yen and Kielberg. European is reported to be there personally directing operations and to be constructing field works."

Special Cable to the New York World and Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1904, by the Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, June 21.—A telegram from Chefoo, June 21.—Gen. Stakelberg's troops, which were much demoralized, were again attacked on Friday.

The Russian losses included 124 soldiers and seven officers taken prisoner.

KUROKAWA IS TRYING TO SAVE STAKELBERG'S COMMAND

Special Cable to the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1904, by the Press Publishing Co.) CHEFOO, June 21.—Gen. Stakelberg has headed two of the converging Japanese columns.

The advance guard of Gen. Nodzu struck the rear guard of the Russians near Takopo, but the Russian cavalry had the Japanese from the rear. The Russians have still one column on the move further north, which may cut off the Russians. It is now engaged with Kielberg.

The Siberian rifle brigades under Kromdratenko, is in touch with Stakelberg and is attempting to cut him off. The rescue and rescue are being directed by Kurokawa from a point north of Hal-cheng, where his railway car is stationed.

RUSSIANS HAVE TAKEN THE OFFENSIVE IN THE FIELD

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1904, by the Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, June 21.—The Chronicle's special correspondent with the Japanese headquarters at Feng Wang Cheng cables on Sunday:

"The Russians continue to move south from Lio Yang and are concentrating at Hal-cheng. This is believed to be the prelude to a vigorous offensive movement against the second Japanese army.

"The Russian force facing the first army is in contact with the Chinese and is attempting to cut it off. The Russians are active on the flanks of the first army and are well supplied with artillery. A column is moving north.

Kurokawa occupies a strong position and is confident that he will be able to withstand the threatened onslaught."

LAGRAVE FACES HIS ACCUSER

Charges of Falsehood Pass Between World's Fair Commissioner and
M. Combes.

News dispatches from Paris in reference to the corruption of members of the government in connection with the expulsion of the Carthusian monks, tell of stormy scenes in the committee chamber.

At Monday's session Michael Lagrave, French Commissioner to the World's Fair, who left St. Louis for Paris a few weeks ago, and George Combes, son of Premier Combes, engaged in a face to face discussion in which each openly charged the other with untruthfulness.

The charges being investigated by the committee are that an attempt was made to force Combes to resign. The Commissioner Lagrave acted as intermediary. This charge the Carthusian monks stoutly denies. The Carthusian monks will be summoned to testify, the government furnishing them a safe conduct.

FAVOR CONTINUING STRIKE. Delegates to Colorado Miners' Meet- ing Want to Hold Out.

PUEBLO, Colo., June 21.—About 40 delegates from all parts of the district had come to attend the special convention of the Fifteenth District United Miners' Workers of America, which opens today. The meeting is called for the purposes of discussing and passing on the question of calling off the strike that has been on since last November in the Colorado mines.

The majority of the delegates reveals the fact that the majority are in favor of continuing the strike, even if the support of the national organization is withdrawn.

POST-DISPATCH WAR CORRESPONDENT REPORTED SHOT

Cablegram, Seemingly Forwarded By the United States Legation at Peking, says the Russians Fired on Col.
Edwin Emerson, Jr.

MISTAKEN FOR A SPY BY THE RETREATING FORCES

Hampered By the Restrictions of Censors, He Had Pressed On to Get in Direct Touch With the Fighting Lines.

Special Cable to the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

PEKING (unsigned and probably forwarded by United States legation), from Sin Min Tun, June 19.—There are indications that the Russians have been routed.
There is panic in Mukden.

Emerson, the war correspondent, is reported to have been shot. The retreating Russians believed him to be a spy.

This message to the New York World and Post-Dispatch, which was unsigned, but which probably was forwarded by the American legation at Peking, refers to Col.
Edwin Emerson, Jr., one of the World's and Post-Dispatch's correspondents in the East.

Shortly before the receipt of this intelligence, a letter from Col. Emerson was delivered to the Post-Dispatch yesterday. It was dated from Chemulpo on May 14.
Col. Emerson was writing on behalf of the restrictions which hampered correspondents attached to the Japanese armies, he had decided to press forward and establish official communication with the Russian lines.
While representing the World and the Post-Dispatch, Col. Emerson until recently corresponded for Collier's Weekly in the East.

The cablegram would indicate that if the report of Col. Emerson's death is not erroneous, he had reached the seat of active fighting. The last message from Col.
Emerson was from Sin Min Tun, June 19.
He was of Pekin, in which he said:

"Mukden is muzzled; no news can go out from there."

Was an Adventurous,
Daring Correspondent.

Edwin Emerson, Jr., a daring and adventurous newspaper man, and in his letters were those expressions:

"I am going on just the same. I find I can get into the Russian lines."

He had left the Japanese army some time before, being weary of the restrictions, however necessary, put upon correspondents by the intelligence bureau of the Japanese army, and returned to Japan. Thence he had crossed Tientsin, China, and pushed up to Mukden.

Emerson was one of the most picturesque soldiers of fortune who has taken to war correspondence as a life calling. He first came into prominence as a writer at Harvard College, and, being graduated from there in 1881, immediately engaged in newspaper work, traveling all around the world for a number of English and American newspapers.

After the Greco-Turkish war in 1897, for which he, like so many others, was too late, he again became a soldier, this time in the Spanish-American war. Together with Capt. Whitney of the secret service he undertook to reconnoiter Port Rico before the occupation of the Island by the United States.

Whitney and Emerson were to start from opposite points, intending to meet at Mayaguez, Port Rico, and from there to San Juan.

Whitney, having aroused the suspicion of the Spanish, was compelled to make his way to the United States. Emerson was taken before Judge Tracy in the United States Court, charged with disturbing the peace, and sentenced to death.

Emerson was turned up periodically at various sentences of Death.

Bribing one of his guards, he escaped, commandeered a horse and made his way back to the coast, where he smuggled himself aboard a French vessel, which took him to the French West Indies.

For this exploit, Col. Roosevelt, who had just got together a regiment of rough riders, invited the daring correspondent to join his regiment as one of his troopers.
Emerson joined the regiment, and took part in the last fighting there and remained a soldier of fortune, gallantly and a staff appointment on Gen.
Wheeler's staff. Since that time Emerson has turned up periodically at various successive wars, in South Africa, in China and in South America.

His last appearance preceding as a correspondent was in the guerrilla war between Venezuela and Colombia, where he took such an active share in the fighting that he was offered an army commission and was presently promoted to a colonelcy by the title of San Cristobal.

When the outbreak of the Japanese Russian war found him on the Isthmus of Panama, but, as the outbreak of the war grew more imminent, he left Panama and took the first steamer to the Pacific to the present scene of hostilities.

MAIL BOXES DISFIGURED.

Items Mixed on Newly Painted Receptacles With Unightly Effect.

Postmaster Frank Wyman received complaints of disfiguration of mail boxes, which have been recently painted. Upon complaint several weeks ago, the mail boxes were becoming rusty looking.

The postmaster obtained an appropriate color, the paint was dry, someones smeared green paint over the surface, making very unattractive receptacles.

The postmaster will make an effort to discover the guilty parties, and if he is successful, they will be summoned for trial. The postmaster will be such that any resolutions offered by the committee, with Harry Hawes as chairman, would be easily passed.

FAVOR CONTINUING STRIKE.
Delegates to Colorado Miners' Meeting Want to Hold Out.

PUEBLO, Colo., June 21.—About 40 delegates from all parts of the district had come to attend the special convention of the Fifteenth District United Miners' Workers of America, which opens today. The meeting is called for the purposes of discussing and passing on the question of calling off the strike that has been on since last November in the Colorado mines.

The majority of the delegates reveals the fact that the majority are in favor of continuing the strike, even if the support of the national organization is withdrawn.

EDWIN
EMERSON

FOLK LEADERS DROP FIGHT ON JUDGE WOODSON

Incoming Delegates to Convention to Nominate Supreme Court Judge Paid Little Attention to the Complaints of the St. Joseph Men.

MACHINE MEN, LED BY HAWES, IN FULL CONTROL

Contests Announced in Only Three Counties—Jasper, Clinton and St.
Louis—William H. Phelps Is Engineering the Folk Interests.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 21.—The effort made by local Folk men to create a feeling against Judge Woodson yesterday was so slight that the convention met today to nominate a candidate for supreme judge on the Democratic ticket. The action of the local Folk men was based on the ground that Judge Woodson and his brother, Dr.
C. R. Woodson, superintendent of the state insane asylum here, were openly working for Sam B. Cook for secretary of state and against James Todd.

The Folk men had made threats of bringing the name of Judge W. W. Graves before the convention as a candidate to oppose Woodson, but that effort seemed to not have been dropped. Many of the delegates could not be seen until this morning and could not be seen by the St. Joseph men organizing the opposition.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming delegates to the complaints of the St. Joseph

men.

Little attention was given by the incoming

POST-DISPATCH'S EDITORIAL PAGE AND DAILY

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
Founded by JOSEPH PULITZER. Published by
THE PULITZER PUBLISHING CO., 210-212 N. Broadway.

AFFIDAVIT OF CIRCULATION ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH.

STATE OF MISSOURI, CITY OF ST. LOUIS, ss.
Personally appeared before me, a notary public in and for the city of St. Louis, Mo., W. C. Steiger, Business Manager of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, who deposes and says that the regular editions of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for the last four months (January, February, March and April, 1904), after deducting all copies returned by newsboys and copies left over, spoiled in printing and unaccounted for, averaged,

DAILY ONLY..... 143,155

SUNDAY ONLY..... 230,061

IN THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS AND SUBURBS ONLY,
THE DAILY DISTRIBUTION AVERAGE FOR THE MONTHS OF JANUARY, FEBRUARY, MARCH AND
APRIL WAS 124,647.

W. C. STEIGERS, Business Manager.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 20th day of May, 1904.
HARRY M. DUHRING.
My term expires Aug. 14, 1905.

Hanna dead seems more alive than Roosevelt living.

Roosevelt may read the Chicago ticket, "It and Hitt."

The spellbinders will fill all the empty dinner pails with hot air.

The Cannon still booms, notwithstanding Mr. Cannon's efforts to spike it.

London is now getting the idea that American women have a great deal of backbone.

Whatever the House of Representatives may not be, Republican nominating conventions are no longer deliberative assemblies.

CONTENTS OF THE DINNER PAIL.

The full dinner pail, which was one of the chief assets of Republicanism four years ago, and which, it was asserted, was inexhaustible under Republican policy, is a melancholy memory to a vast host of workingmen. The dinner pail is as empty as Mother Hubbard's cupboard.

Facts set forth in the elaborate review of the industrial situation in the Sunday Post-Dispatch show a sorry state of affairs. The shrinkage in trade which began some ten months ago, makes 655,000 persons idle who were employed on full time two years ago.

The railroads are carrying between 25 and 35 per cent less merchandise than a year ago; the iron and steel industry has fallen away 45 to 55 per cent; the wholesale meat and packing business has declined 25 per cent; the wholesale dry goods trade has fallen 25 to 35 per cent; imports of luxuries have shrunken 25 per cent; and to authenticate these melancholy reports the bank clearings throughout the country are 20 to 25 per cent below the level of a year ago.

An army of idle men 655,000 strong represents a population of 327,500 without means of support. The workingman looks in his dinner pail and sees nothing but the bottom; his children look in the pantry and see not even a bone.

The Republican party has had things all its own way for several years. And this unhappy condition is the fruit of Republican policy. The promises of the demagogues are unfulfilled.

The tariff-made monopolies are prosperous; the trusts flourish; but the workingman's dinner pail is empty. The masses of the people were promised an equitable distribution of the profits to arise from Republican policies. The profits are monopolized by the few who dictate platforms, write tariff schedules and manipulate senatorial and cabinet officers. To this pass has the Republican party brought the country, after eight years of complete ascendancy.

The Japanese are laugher. Perhaps they have no comic papers.

LA FOLLETTE'S BOMBSHELL.

Through the Milwaukee Free Press Gov. La Follette makes an attack upon Spooner, Payne, Babcock and the Republican national committee which contains enough quotable material to supply the Democrats with arguments until the end of the campaign.

The charges go to public offenses and even personal dishonor. They must be disproved or the party which follows such leaders must stand convicted of connivance with fraud and subserviency to the malignant interests.

Spooner and Payne are charged with promoting railway interests in the Northwest at the expense of the public. Babcock's rapid accumulation of Washington real estate is mentioned with significant ambiguity. Van Fleet, the California committeeman, is pleasantly referred to as a "political adventurer," with some remarks on the lobby and an oblique reference to the Southern Pacific and the 50 congressmen owned by the late C. P.
Huntington. Then there is Hart of Iowa, who is "subject to the orders of James J. Hill," and a dozen others whose political importance is attributed to their serviceable to railroad corporations and trust monopolies.

It is a disgusting picture of infamy. La Follette may be no saint, but if he can prove half his charges, Theodore Roosevelt will have to reorganize the entire Republican machine before he can decently ask for the confidence of the American people.

Secretary Shaw thinks that every high school in the United States should see the Exposition. A good Iowa idea. Certainly every city could, if it would, send its high schools.

A HUMANE STATESMAN.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, who told Kate Carew something of his life for the Sunday Post-Dispatch, is unquestionably be-
-and the times.

Asked if he was fond of hunting, like Mr. Roosevelt, he replied: "No, I have no desire to kill. The wild creatures are as much entitled to life as we are. I like to see them enjoying their life as I enjoy mine. I like nothing better than to get out into the woods and hear the birds sing."

This old statesman, who will be remembered and honored for his public services long after the Quays, Spooners, Addicks and Penroses are forgotten, is nevertheless not up-to-date. He is not contemporaneous.

A public man who despises the killing of wild creatures is too chicken-hearted for the current strenuous philosophy. If the old man can't bear to kill the birds, what must be his feelings when he hears that the big stick will fall upon his neighbors south of the Rio Grande if they are not good according to the Washington government's idea of goodness.

Unless a man makes a killing somehow or somewhere, or cries a public policy which requires a killing as a public duty he has no claim to be called a statesman.

The ugliness of the policy and temper of the big stick becomes repulsive when contrasted with the humane and gentle philosophy of this man, who has done more for the spread of American influence by means of the interoceanic canal than all the shrill preachers of violence have dreamed of as a consequence of the adoption of their crass proposals.

The Great American GOOK. How Do You Like Him?

He Tells a Few Way-Up Sports How to Pick the Handicap Winners.

THE CLUBWOMAN'S VIEWS

By THE SOCIETY GIRL

"THE papers say," said the Society Girl, "that the treasurer of a woman's club in Elgin has de-
-sisted.

"I wonder," said the Club Woman, "where she got the money to do it with. That reminds me—did you see that Dr. Simon, the health commissioner, 'has ruled that city physicians must not be called 'Doc.' Mr. Brown says that some of them shouldn't be called at all, but I think that's one of his jokes. I never can be sure when he is joking, because he doesn't laugh."

"But I think Dr. Simon is right. I had quite an argument with Mr. Brown about it. He took the queerest position—that if a physician, after 20 years' of successful practice, could attain to nothing more imposing in the way of a title than the two syllables, 'Doctor,' it seemed unfair to give the beginner in the profession more than one. Mr. Brown said it reminded him of a story."

"It seems a man had a cheap plated watch and he broke off the ring to which the chain fastened. Well, he took the watch to a jeweler and the jeweler put in a solid gold ring and charged the man $4. So do you see the point? I couldn't, and I told Mr. Brown."

"What did he say?" asked the Society Girl.

"He said it looked like another case of the tail wagging the dog."

"But why," asked the Society Girl, "did a woman defaulter remind you of nine names?"

"Well," said the Club Woman, "they're both short, aren't they? And, besides, both are such bad form."

CHERISH THE HAND THAT JILTS THEE

By NICKOLA GREELEY-SMITH, Granddaughter of Horace Greeley.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

A young man of Plymouth, Pa., has sent out to teach young women who jilt him a lesson. He has brought suit against a girl who canceled her engagement to marry him for $5000 for breach of promise.

Too many girls are free with the affections of men he declared. They become engaged in order to have a good time, and after they tire of the novelty they break the engagement. Meanwhile the men, sincere themselves and believing the girls sincere, have made preparations to be married. They can do nothing; they have no protection.

Men are deterred from breaking engagements by the fear of breach of promise suits. There is no reason why the girls should not be withheld from jilting men by the same reason.

Theoretically, this seems very like ex-cellence reasoning, but it has been im-proved while a young woman save in
-rare instances suffers pecuniary damage,
-the same branch confers a corresponding -degree of financial immunity on the young man. Therefore, whatever the injury to -his pride, the wrench to his heart strings,
-jilting him is a benefit rather than an
-injury to his pocket, and therefore does
-not entitle him to pecuniary damages
-which are all that the law recognizes or
-able to confer.

It is a peculiar fact about an engaged man that, while there may be many moments when he may be inclined to break the engagement, he has no right to do so and is entitled to seek redress in the courts. If he chooses to do so and is and that kind.

But why should engaged men rejoice?

It must be admitted that, carried away by the surrounding feminine enthusiasm, they usually do so. But what for?

A captive trailing humbly after the triumphant car of his conqueror might just as reasonably be carried away by the band music and halt the procession to execute a dance expressive of his keen desire.

Or the would-be suicide, standing on the railroad track fronting the red-eyed monster of destruction as it bears down upon him, sue the engineer for damages because he became aware of his peril and halted it just in time to save his life.

Or the condemned criminal, reprieved at the scaffold, have it for the bearer of the merciful message.

The idea of a young girl for breach of promise is ridiculous. If she jilts him she becomes the most desirable of earthly things.

However, few men have been jilted since the world began who did not learn in later life that they have more often cause for gratitude to the woman who refuses than to her who accepts them.

To a woman an engagement—even though stripped of romantic illusions—is legitimately enough a cause for rejoicing, for it gives her a right to protection and a guarantee of support for life.

And the breaking of an engagement is just as properly a distinct financial griev-ance and one for which she is entitled -to seek redress in the courts. If she -chooses to do so and is and that kind.

But why should engaged men rejoice?

It must be admitted that, carried away by the surrounding feminine enthusiasm, they usually do so. But what for?

A captive trailing humbly after the triumphant car of his conqueror might just as reasonably be carried away by the band music and halt the procession to execute a dance expressive of his keen desire.

Or the would-be suicide, standing on the railroad track fronting the red-eyed monster of destruction as it bears down upon him, sue the engineer for damages because he became aware of his peril and halted it just in time to save his life.

Or the condemned criminal, reprieved at the scaffold, have it for the bearer of the merciful message.

The idea of a young girl for breach of promise is ridiculous. If she jilts him she becomes the most desirable of earthly things.

However, few men have been jilted since the world began who did not learn in later

FOR THE YOUNG FOLKS

The Procrastinating Kangaroo.

"Why do you hurry?" asked Mr. Kangaroo of Mr. Terrapin, as the latter scrambled out of the bushes and hurried down the road the other day.

"Toot! Toot!" shrieked the whistle.

Mr. Kangaroo was almost there.

"Toot! Toot!" shrieked the whistle again.

Mr. Kangaroo made a long jump. One hind foot landed on a car step, but as the train was getting under full steam by that time, poor Mr. Kangaroo slipped and fell.

Mr. Terrapin looked out the window of a car and said to himself: "I hope I'll get back in time for the funeral."

"We Have Plenty of Time."

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I've got to catch a train to take me to town to buy some groceries," replied Mr. Terrapin.

"I

ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR HOME READING

POST-DISPATCH SELECTED STORIES

Seventeen Cups' Worth

BY BARRY PRESTON.

THE carnival of all nations was in full swing. Under the roof of thousands of roofs within the hall presented a pictureque if somewhat incongruous aspect. Mushroom structures of gaudily-painted canvas were scattered everywhere without regard to harmony, chronological or architectural. A Chinese pagoda's elbow'd a Mexican "dobe" house and an Indian wigwam was shadowed by a bit of Italian renaissance.

Everywhere was a flood of light and the chatter of many voices; and everywhere were girls in all sorts of variety of costumes—girls in the peasant dress of the Alpine girls in bewitching Scotch plaids, girls in rustling Chinese silks and girls in the beaded skirts and mosaics of Indian squaws.

A very pretty picture, if a trifle gaudy in its colorings, thought Mr. Rodney Cavanagh as he settled himself on a rustic seat before a Korean temple.

The carnival bade fair, too, to be a success, he mused; and then he remembered that the success of a carnival depends upon the liberality with which its patrons spend their money. Therefore he arose and began a systematic round of the various canvas booths.

At the Swiss chalet he imbibed "goat's milk," which, to his certain knowledge came from the cows of a suburban dairy farm; at the Samoan trading station he purchased all sorts of useless trinkets; the wigwam furnished him with a tobacco pouch and a number of stone pipes that no sane man would ever dream of smoking; and at "Monte Carlo" he squandered several good dollars and won a porcelain doll and a bit of plated alpaca.

When Mr. Cavanagh did a thing he did it thoroughly; and by the time he left the Holland windmill he carried a motley array of parcels. These he left in charge of an attendant and pursued his reckless way, intent on acquiring a new collection.

Next the outlandish windmill was a queer little bamboo structure, with many paper lanterns making a pretty halo about it. Over the door were some flaming Japanese characters, and within floated an unmistakable fragrant odor.

"A tea house," said Mr. Cavanagh, with a sigh of relief, and he entered.

A stately geisha came from the dim shadows of the place, gave him a quaint, oriental curtsy and a murmured welcome, and seated himself on a bamboo stool.

"Tea?" she inquired solicitously.

At the sound of the voice Cavanagh started perceptibly.

"Patty!" he said, in surprise. "I didn't know you were here," he added. "I should have come here first if I had."

"Tea?" she asked again, with an imperceptible smile.

"Of, of course. And what have you for sale? I've waded through all kinds of swindles to get here, and I certainly must do my share for your booth, Ma'mselle Geisha," he said.

"We have nothing but tea for sale," she said.

"Only 15 cents," she corrected. "It's very excellent tea, made especially for you while you wait."

"All right," he said. "I'll have 17 cups. And make them one at a time, if you please."

She laughed and lighted a little spirit-kettle. Cavanagh sank upon a bamboo settee and leaned back with the air of a man who intends to stay, and who, moreover, intends to enjoy the period of tarrying to its fullest.

When the kettle was singing properly, the geisha turned to the stool. Even with her make-up she was a very pretty girl. Cavanagh looked at her so intently that she even dropped.

"See here, Patty," said he, reproachfully, "ever since Thursday night I've wanted an explanation of your sudden departure from the library. I have something to tell you, and just as I was beginning you spied Mrs. Bronson in the hall and remembered, rather suddenly, it seemed to me, that you wanted to speak to her. I'd worked my way up to get that library cleared of thick-headed people. It wasn't fair. You might have listened to what I had to say, at least."

"You talk too much about those staghounds," said the geisha ingenuously.

"I wasn't intending to mention them," he explained. "Did you imagine I'd waste my time talking dogs when I was alone with you?"

"Tea is ready," said she, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently. "Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

"Tea is ready," she said, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

The geisha gasped. She stood erect, with flaming cheeks.

"Do you dare say you won't?" he asked. "I have something to tell you, and just as I was beginning you spied Mrs. Bronson in the hall and remembered, rather suddenly, it seemed to me, that you wanted to speak to her. I'd worked my way up to get that library cleared of thick-headed people. It wasn't fair. You might have listened to what I had to say, at least."

"You talk too much about those staghounds," said the geisha ingenuously.

"I wasn't intending to mention them," he explained. "Did you imagine I'd waste my time talking dogs when I was alone with you?"

"Tea is ready," said she, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

"Tea is ready," she said, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

"Tea is ready," she said, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

"Tea is ready," she said, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

"I was afraid," said she.

"Or what?"

"That you intended to ask me—"

"Well, I did."

"And—and I didn't want to have to refuse you."

"Why that 'have to'?" he asked.

"I promised your mother—"

Cavanagh laughed.

"The mother again," said he. "The poor, misguided matron with her schemes for spicing me with the impossible Benson girl. Patty!" he rose and came close beside her. "You shall marry me."

"Tea is ready," she said, pouring a cup for him.

"Bother the tea!" he said, impatiently.

"Turn it out and begin on the second cup. If you'll excuse me, I have to speak to myself. It's worth, unless some blushing idiot blunders in here. No, ma'am, I needn't look at me in that appealing fashion. I intend to stay until some one else comes."

The geisha frowned.

"You're taking an unfair advantage," she said.

"I'm mighty lucky to have an unfair advantage to take," he retorted. "Patty, do you really mean to stay?"

The geisha was bending over the kettle.

"No," she said slowly, without looking up.

"Then why have you avoided me so much of late?" said he.

WORLD'S FAIR HANDICAP

HERMIS ARRIVES FOR BASEBALL CARDINALS VS. PITTSBURG, BROWNS VS. BOSTON TODAY. RACING GOOD FIELDS AND FAST TRACKS TODAY

DISHABILLE BEST AT FAIR GROUNDS

Third Race Is Two-Horse Affair With Princess Orna and Monaco Maid in Order.

ELASTIC HAS A HARD TASK

Footlights Favorite Is Picked to Beat Lemp's Horse With Mattie H. to Show.

Mudlarks will have another inning at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. Dishabille and Princess Orna stand out by themselves in the third race. Both fillies have run well in mud, but Dishabille will probably win today in the mud handicap and Lemp's magnificent big horse has shown ability to carry heavy weight over all kinds of tracks. He is giving away all kinds of weight today and will probably meet defeat.

Footlights Favorite is a shifty filly in the mud. Mattie H. is another clever performer in soft going. One or the other will beat Elastic today.

Wolfram ran away from a pretty fair lot of horses last Friday. He ought to repeat the performance again today.

Jerry Hunt will take a lot of beating this afternoon. He can't run on anything but a soft track. Tom Kiley or Bridge will win the second. Preventative looks the best in the first.

FIRST RACE, four and one-half furlongs, 2-year-olds and over.

Horses. Weight. Prob. Jockey. Hds. Odds.

Tom Kiley . . . . . 104. Lindsay . . . . . 5-2

Princess Orna . . . . . 104. Austin . . . . . 5-2

Monaco Maid . . . . . 104. Anderson . . . . . 5-2

Bridge . . . . . 104. Breslow . . . . . 7-2

The Druggist . . . . . 104. Vito . . . . . 9-2

Dipper . . . . . 104. Morris . . . . . 9-2

Wolfram . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Preventative . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Lemp's . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

last three out. The others out. Price.

Dishabille . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Princess Orna . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Monaco Maid . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

Walpole . . . . . 104. . . . . 15

SEEK TO DELAY CHURCH HEARING

Attorneys for Confessed Murderer Present Plea of Insanity and Ask for Time.

WARRENTON, Mo., June 21.—When Special Judge N. M. Shelton convened court this morning, attorneys for William E. Church, who has confessed to the murder of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yeater, announced their readiness to introduce evidence as to reason for delaying the hearing of their client.

It is claimed that as their client is insane he has not been able to secure any assistance in preparing a defense.

The motion was denied on that contention.

Judge Shelton of Macon was selected to try the case after Judge Johnson had been dismissed, and the attorneys were unable to agree on a date.

The church with which Church is charged is one of the most shocking in the criminal history of the state, and has attracted widespread interest.

A bonded-stamped note found in the rural mail box of Mr. and Mrs. Yeater have been killed.

Church was the first clew to a gratifying case of a most serious tragedy, and upon investigation resulted in the finding of an old couple at their home, with their throats cut to ear.

Church, who was accused and had made good his escape from the country, was at home until the 25th day of last March, when he was apprehended at the navy yards in Philadelphia.

Long before Church was brought into court he had been a prominent and popular figure to overflowing, many ladies being present.

Several physicians, including Dr. G. C. Crandall of St. Louis, will testify to the insanity of the defendant. The state has not outlined its opposition to the motion.

"FIGHTING PARSON" AGAIN IN BATTLE

Swathed in Court Plaster, He Preaches on Christian Piety, Then Becomes Deficient.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—Jefferson Township, 12 miles from the border line of Pittsburg, is again in a religious uproar. The Rev. S. P. Montgomery, pastor of the Jefferson U. P. Church, at present under $600 bonds for whipping Elder Edmund P. Heath in the church two weeks ago, had a fistfight Saturday evening with Henry Snee, a 200-pound Heath sympathizer.

The Rev. Mr. Montgomery knocked Snee down twice, but was finally floored himself with a blow to his forehead open the blood flowed until it ran down his face.

After they were separated Mr. Montgomery washed the blood off, had himself done up in a suit and vest and then again salled forth after battle with his 200-pounder.

The minister went home and prepared to go to court on Christian piety, which he delivered in the parsonage to the parson, Snee, now known as the "fighting parson," said no, that he was able to take care of himself.

Wednesday Union Entries.

First race, seven-eighths of a mile, selling: 338—Oogen ..... 101

339—Lady Linette ..... 108

340—Mollie Tenbrook ..... 109

341—Equity ..... 103

342—Bredford ..... 106

343—Our Rose ..... 111

344—Curt ..... 88

Second race, nine and 70 yards, selling:

345—Miss Weston ..... 115

346—A. Conwell ..... 109

347—Singer ..... 116

348—B. C. ..... 103

349—Inspector ..... 113

350—Angeier ..... 111

Third race, one and one-half furlongs, selling:

351—The Fiddler ..... 108

352—Symphony ..... 109

353—Leech ..... 92

354—H. H. ..... 107

355—Selkett ..... 89

356—Bells of the Ring ..... 89

357—C. Countess Clara ..... 106

358—P. Plaza ..... 102

5th race, five and one-half furlongs, selling:

359—J. Sidney Walker ..... 116

360—In Doubt ..... 122

361—W. D. ..... 122

362—Tom Collins ..... 125

363—Declination ..... 122

364—H. D. ..... 114

365—Harvester ..... 114

366—Our Corp ..... 115

367—P. ..... 111

368—Prince Richard ..... 112

Wednesday's Fair Grounds Entries.

First race, four and one-half furlongs, maiden 3-year-old fillies, selling:

369—Jordan ..... 106

370—Violeta ..... 107

371—Pharmacy ..... 98

372—Daisy ..... 103

373—Daffodil ..... 103

374—Pique ..... 103

375—W. ..... 108

376—Bounding Shop ..... 98

377—Sonic ..... 103

378—Amelia ..... 98

Second race, six furlongs, mares, 4-year-olds and up, selling:

379—Snow ..... 107

380—G. ..... 106

381—*Sundowner ..... 105

382—Reducer ..... 105

383—*Cyrano ..... 104

384—Prince Richard ..... 112

Third race, six and one-half furlongs, 3-year-old fillies, selling:

385—Jerry Hunt ..... 107

386—Alie ..... 103

387—F. F. II ..... 93

388—*Goss ..... 102

Fourth race, six and an eighth, 3-year-olds and up, handicap:

389—Jordan ..... 100

390—Judge Holmes ..... 107

391—T. ..... 107

392—Flying Torpedo ..... 108

393—Chicago Leo ..... 97

394—Falkland ..... 97

395—Trouere ..... 106

5th race, six and half furlongs, 3-year-olds and up, handicap:

396—Mingh ..... 107

397—Our Little ..... 89

398—*Priscilla Imp ..... 94

399—Falkland ..... 97

400—M. ..... 91

401—Orion ..... 98

*Appendage allowance claimed.

Judgment Is Affirmed.

The case of Lucille E. Goldsmith against the state, in which she was sentenced to the supreme court at Jefferson City, Mo., the plaintiff had obtained judgment in the St. Louis circuit court for $3671 for attorney's fees. The defendant, however, upon appeal by the defendant, the higher court sustained the judgment.

Good Buying of the Steel Stocks Helps the Market and Closing Prices Show Small Gains for the Day.

POST-DISPATCH DAILY RECORD OF FINANCIAL AND MARKETS

QUIET BUT HIGHER ON WALL STREET

LITTLE CHANGE IN LOCAL STOCKS

A CHANGE OF WEATHER NEEDED

Commonwealth Trust Makes a Further Gain, But the General List Is Unchanged.

IS SOME DEMAND FOR BONDS

Moderate Purchases in These Issues Shows Some Investment Demand Still in Sight.

They Open Firm, Decline Sharply and Later Advance Very Stiffly.

Some strength at the opening, followed by a sharp break and that by a stiff advance, was the course the wheat market took today. Predictions for better weather was the principal bearish influence and it led to heavy selling. Conspicuous was the selling out of large lines July, said to be for the principal bull interest here, which replaced the July with purchases of September. An immediate rally followed.

Opening prices and changes were as follows: Copper 50¢, decline ½¢; Atchison 72¢, ½¢; St. Louis 74¢, ½¢; Kansas 65¢, advanced ½¢; Baltimore & Ohio 70¢, ½¢; Indianapolis 92¢, ½¢; Pennsylvania 75¢, advanced ½¢; St. Paul 80¢, ½¢; Chicago 78¢, ½¢; Milwaukee 75¢, advanced ½¢; Southern Pacific 47¢, unchanged; U. S. Steel 55¢, advanced ½¢; U. S. Steel preferred 55¢, advanced ½¢.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Large buying orders for the steel shares appeared later, and these issues made further gains. The response, however, was somewhat slow, and the market was advanced fractionally on quite liberal purchases.

Deaths, Burial Permits, Marriages and Births

DEATHS.

BRADY—On Tuesday, June 21, at 2 a. m., J. M. Brett Joseph Brady, only son of P. J. and Mary (Brett) Brady, died at his residence, 1112 Madison street, Wednesday, June 22, at 2 a. m. Interment private.

BRAZIL—On Monday, June 20, 1904, at 10:30 a. m., Edward Brazil, son of the late Edward Brazil, daughter of Caroline and sister of Henry Ahrens, aged 26 years 3 months 20 days.

BREWER—On Wednesday, June 22, at 2 o'clock p. m., from family residence, 1815 Coleman street, to St. Louis cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

BROOKE—Entered into rest on Tuesday, June 21, at 3 o'clock a. m., Edward Brooke, beloved husband of Ellen Bruce, wife of Edward Bruce, son of D. C. and Mrs. Alex G. and Margaret Bruce, and Mrs. G. F. Finch.

Friends will take place from the farm residence, 2661 Cottage avenue, on Sunday, June 26, at 2 o'clock p. m., to Joliettefontaine cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

Deceased was a member of Golden Crown Lodge No. 62, of P. and C. Co. Lodge. For Scotch-American papers please copy.

CHARLES—At Shippman, Ill., June 20, at 11 a. m., George Charles of Cummingland, Md., aged 72.

EMIG—On Sunday, June 19, at 1 p. m., Morris Emig, beloved husband of Caroline Emig (nee Simpson), aged 45 years.

Funeral Wednesday, June 22, 2 p. m., from family residence, 1861 Bell avenue, thence to Missouri Crematory.

St. Charles (Ia.) papers please copy.

MISSION—Entered into rest on Monday, June 20, at 10:30 a. m., Michael Mission, beloved husband of Margaret Mission (nee Dacey) and dear father of Peter and Anna Mission, and of Mrs. Peter and Mrs. Celia Bur, after a lingering illness, at the age of 66 years.

The funeral will take place on Thursday, June 23, at 4 o'clock p. m., from family residence, 3127 East Avenue, to St. Alphonsus Church, thence to the Calvary Cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

Newspapers (Ia.) papers please copy.

Deaths.

Albert MacArthur . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st. Business Announcements, 10c a line.

George MacArthur . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Mary MacArthur . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . Vickburg, Miss.

John Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Kathy Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

John Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

Albert Kowman . . . . . 1236 N. 20th st.

